SPEECHES HAD THE RIGHT RING

J. N. Hanley Vice President, G. Y.
Travis Secretary And D. M. Ogilvie
Treasurer.

From a numerical point of view the mass meeting held at the council chamber Friday evening for the purpose of reorganizing the city board of trade was perhaps not quite up to the expectations of the promoters of the movement. However, there were about 50 prominent and enterprising citizens present, the majority being business men, and a most enthusiastic session resulted.

The fact that the meeting was projected and carried out on only one day's notice was the cause of the rather small attendance; but the extreme interest manifested by those who were present more than made up for all other deficiencies.

Attorney G. Y. Travis called the meeting to order and made a brief but pointed address, stating the object of the session, and asked that a temporary organization be effected. On motion of City Clerk Hanley, Frank H. Croxall was made chairman and Mr. Travis secretary. Mr. Croxall made a neat speech, in which he heartily endorsed the project to revive the board of trade, and in closing asked for suggestions as to the best method of procedure.

D. A. Devine, who was a member of the former board, said he had given the matter much thought, and expressed the belief that nothing could be done of more benefit to the city. He stated his willingness to encourage the movement, but thought the board, when newly organized, should start off with a representation of capital inducement.

Chairman Croxall thought Mr. Travis should offer a suggestion, but that gentleman insisted that expressions be received from the different ones present before any definite action was taken.

Mr. Devine again took the floor and suggested that the new board be organized in the same manner as the former one. He thought it proper for the chairman to appoint two business men or property owners from each ward in the city to serve on the board. Mr. Croxall demurred, explaining he considered that he was taking too much responsibility on himself in making the appointments as suggested by Mr. Devine.

A motion was made by Mr. Travis that an executive session be held for the election of officers. The motion carried. Harry Smith followed with a motion that a nominating committee of three be appointed to select officers for a permanent organization. Mr. Smith's motion met with instantaneous favor and was carried. Messrs. Steinfeld, Smith and Ferguson were appointed to serve on the committee, and those gentlemen retired to the city engineer's office, where a brief caucus was held. On returning to the council chamber, Mr. Steinfeld announced that the committee had selected F. H. Croxall as president; J. N. Hanley, vice president; G. Y. Travis, secretary, and D. M. Ogilvie treasurer. Mr. Steinfeld stated that the members of the nominating committee thought it advisable to select a board of directors and the names of the following gentlemen were submitted: Thompson Andrews, W. C. Davidson, J. W. Gipner, N. G. Ma-

crum, John W. Moore, Jr., and D. A. Devine.

On a motion by Joseph Betz the names of the officers and board of directors decided on by the nominating committee were ratified.

Harry Smith made a motion that a committee be appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws. Mr. Croxall expressed the opinion that the board of directors should perform the duties recommended by Mr. Smith. This was agreed to by Mr. Smith and a motion was made and carried to that effect.

Mr. Hanley expressed himself as believing it to be a wise move to appoint members to serve on the new board and that a membership fee of $1 be charged. The chairman stated that he believed better results would accrue by calling another meeting, when a possibly larger attendance would be present. He thought by properly agitating the proposed rejuvenation of the board and arousing further interest that a meeting of great proportions would result, and hence a better opportunity be afforded for starting the organization off with a substantial membership. Mr. Steinfeld thought Mr. Croxall's suggestion a good one, and also expressed the belief that it would be advisable to defer the action of organizing permanently until another meeting was called.

Elijah Hill gave his views on the question. He stated he considered it prudent to have the names of all present enrolled and that each should pledge himself by paying a membership fee. Mr. Hill thought by this means the board would be given a substantial foundation and that it would tend to encourage others to fall in line.

T. H. Burgess asked for an explanation as to the duties of the board of directors. He also desired information regarding Mr. Hill's suggestion to have those present at the meeting sign their names to a paper, and asked if by so doing they would become identified directly with the board of trade. The chairman explained that it was the intention to get as many signatures as was possible, and that each and everyone would be considered full-fledged members.

Councilman Nice gave an opinion that it would be discreet to defer further action until the by-laws and constitution were drawn up. Mr. Travis thought as Mr. Nice, and suggested that the board of directors get to work immediately and have that part of the business attended to in time for a meeting to be held some time next week.

Mr. Devine reiterated his former statement that he considered it in keeping with a business-like meeting to start off the organization with a subscription. Mr. Hill favored Mr. Devine's idea, and said that by following that suggestion all present at the meeting would be committing themselves to take active interest.

A standing vote was taken on the proposition with the result that the secretary was instructed to prepare a paper for the signatures of those who wished to become members of the board.

A suggestion which readily met with hearty favor was made by Mr. Hill. He thought the press should use all possible influence in booming the city's interests and induce propertyholders to get together and establish sites for the location of new industries which may be secured. He argued that if this was done it would greatly facilitate matters and assist in a great measure those whose duties it shall be to show up the city's advantages to any representative manufacturer seeking a location.

W. A. Calhoun, a member of the retiring board of trade, stated he had a copy of that body's constitution and by-laws, which he thought might be of benefit in drafting the new rules. The chairman requested Mr. Calhoun to furnish his copy to one of the board of directors, and that gentleman promised to do so.

The chairman asked the assemblage

DESPONDENCY LED TO DEATH BY POISON.

JAMES HEVERLY SWALLOWED
FOUR OUNCES OF LAUDANUM.

Lingered Many Hours—Wrote a Letter Saying He Had No Friends
And Would Die.

Despondency resulting from incessant indulgence in liquor, prompted James Heverly, aged 48 years, to take his own life. He died at his home on Second street at 10:30 o'clock this morning after three physicians had vainly endeavored during all of Friday night to save him.

Heverly swallowed the contents of a bottle containing four ounces of laudanum. At about 4:30 o'clock Friday evening he went to his home, where his wife was awaiting him, and on entering the door he produced the bottle containing the drug, telling Mrs. Heverly he proposed killing himself. He was under the influence of liquor and his wife, who had on several previous occasions heard him talk of suiciding, paid little attention to him. She says she did not have any idea the bottle contained poison.

Heverly went to the kitchen for a few moments and on coming into the room where his wife was sitting, he held the vial before her, showing about half of the contents gone. Then stepping back to the door he swallowed the remainder of the drug before her eyes. She made no effort to stop her husband, believing he was attempting to frighten her by feigning suicide.

After Heverly had taken the second dose he went to the kitchen door, where he smashed the bottle on a pile of brick. He then started back into the room where Mrs. Heverly was. As he entered he began to stagger. The woman attempted to get hold of his hand, but he pushed her aside, and then for the first time she noticed by the glassy stare in his eyes, that something was wrong. Two physicians were summoned and worked with the man for several hours. Another doctor was finally secured, but nothing could be done.

The body was taken to the rooms of Undertaker West, and later removed to the home of Mrs. Mary Laughlin, on Jackson street, a sister of the dead man. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Heverly has been employed as a laborer in this city for several years. It is said his family relations were not pleasant and that his wife had threatened to leave him, which is thought to have been the prompting of his rash act. He had been pre-meditating suicide for several days and wrote letters to a number of his relatives, stating his intention. Friday morning he mailed a letter to his brother, Charles Heverly, in this city, saying he was tired of living; that his friends had deserted him, and that he would be a corpse at midnight. The letter was received Friday evening and Charles went to his brother's home to find him in an unconscious state. He was then too far gone to revive, but owing to the extremely large dose of the poison his death did not result at the time he had calculated on being dead.

AN ENCLOSED PARK

Site Selected Near Chester Mill

Up Without Delay.

After many years spent in the difficult task of attempting to equip and maintain base ball clubs in East Liverpool without being able to collect admissions from patrons of the game, the city is to have an enclosed park, and that, too, without delay.

Wm. E. Morrow, of this city, yesterday closed the deal in which he leases a tract of land immediately west of the Southside mill. The gentleman will let the contract at once for building the fence and grand stand.

The enclosure will be 425x175 feet.

THE CITY HAS A CHANCE TO GET A GLASS FACTORY

and a fence 10 feet in height will be erected around three sides. The fourth will be occupied by the grand stand with a seating capacity of about 1,500.

Mr. Morrow, with W. A. Calhoun and several others, were on the ground yesterday and spent some time in figuring out the arrangement of the park and fixing lines. Mr. Calhoun will lay out the diamond, thus assuring a perfect piece of work in this regard, as he has had a great deal of experience.

Mr. Morrow proposes to lose no time in letting the various contracts, and it is thought the work will be well under way by the middle of next week.

As soon as the grounds are in readiness the proprietor will book games with all the principal amateur teams in Pennsylvania and Ohio. Games will be arranged ahead with teams from cities sending picnic parties to Rock Springs, and the city is promised a series of contests such as the city has not witnessed in years.

Robert Hawkins, manager at the Union pottery, was hit on the head by a discarded plate mold yesterday afternoon and received an injury which will lay him up for some time.

Mr. Hawkins was outside of the building repairing a broken steam pipe when a boy threw the mold from an upstairs window. The object struck the manager with such force as to inflict an ugly wound, and one which may develop into serious complications.

He was assisted to the office of a physician, where the wound was dressed and the gentleman made as comfortable as possible. He is suffering considerable pain today.

The practice of throwing broken molds and ware from the windows has become so general that the wonder is there are not more accidents from this cause. Steps will be taken to stop the custom at the Union, at least.

The proposed East Liverpool-Salem street railway project is not dead. U. J. Smith, of Cleveland, one of the holders of the franchise for the line, was here this week, accompanied by a capitalist presumably interested, and they drove over the proposed route to Salem.

It is stated that a practical surveyor will be here next week to make an inspection of the whole route. Although nothing could be learned from the Cleveland gentleman regarding his plans, the fact that a surveyor is to follow him indicates the possibility of important developments later.

WHAT IT IS PROPOSED TO DO

The Old Specialty Glass Company's
Site to Be Purchased And Utilized
A Factory Could Be Erected in a Very Short Time.

At the conclusion of the organization of the new board of trade at city hall last evening, a proposition was submitted to that body which will probably result in the institution of a new glass house on the site of the old Specialty plant.

James N. Hanley, who was elected vice president of the board, submitted the proposition and immediate action on the matter was taken. Mr. Hanley stated that the company now formed had no connection with the Specialty concern, but was composed of practical and experienced men with the interests of the city at heart.

It is the desire of the new company to capitalize with $50,000 capital stock. No bonus is asked from the board of trade, and the only assistance asked is that the board promote the deal by aiding in the sale of stock. It is the intention to dispose of 250 shares at $100 each, thus making $25,000 with which the company proposes to buy the old site of the Specialty factory and also the machinery.

John Manor, formerly president of the Specialty company, was present at the meeting and he was called on to give an expression relative to the profits, etc., of the glass business. He gave positive assurance that there were no risks to run and that a handsome profit would be realized by the stockholders. Mr. Manor further stated that when once in full operation the plant would employ 150 men.

Attorney Travis considered the proposition a flattering one and urged the board of trade to take action without delay. He made a motion, which carried, asking that a committee of three—later changed to six—be appointed to confer with the projectors of the new concern. Messrs. Gipner, Ferguson, Devine, Hanley, Travis and Willis Davidson were chosen, and at the conclusion of the board of trade meeting, held a conference in Clerk Hanley's office with Mr. Manor and others of the new company.

While no definite decision has as yet been arrived at, there is little doubt but that the matter will be carried through to a successful climax. Much stock has already been sold and there is every reason to believe the balance will find ready purchasers. It is the belief of several interested in the project that work on rebuilding the old factory will commence before the summer is half over. Mr. Manor says if the stock is disposed of within the next few weeks, the plant will be ready for operation in about two months.

River Rose One Foot.

The river rose one foot during yesterday and last night, and the marks at the wharf this morning registered 8 feet and rising slowly. The Greenwood passed down last night, the Virginia passed up and the Lorena and Virginia will be down tonight. The Jim Brown passed up yesterday with a tow of empties.

Score 28 to 18.

The baseball game played at Rock Springs park yesterday afternoon between the Belmont club and the high school team was won by the Belmont boys by a score of 28 to 18.

Chairman Croxall thought Mr. Travis should offer a suggestion, but that gentleman insisted that expressions be received from the different ones present before any definite action was taken.

Mr. Devine again took the floor and suggested that the new board be organized in the same manner as the former one. He thought it proper for the chairman to appoint two business men or property owners from each ward in the city to serve on the board. Mr. Croxall demurred, explaining he considered that he was taking too much responsibility on himself in making the appointments as suggested by Mr. Devine.

A motion was made by Mr. Travis that an executive session be held for the election of officers. The motion carried. Harry Smith followed with a motion that a nominating committee of three be appointed to select officers for a permanent organization. Mr. Smith's motion met with instantaneous favor and was carried. Messrs. Steinfeld, Smith and Ferguson were appointed to serve on the committee, and those gentlemen retired to the city engineer's office, where a brief caucus was held. On returning to the council chamber, Mr. Steinfeld announced that the committee had selected F. H. Croxall as president; J. N. Hanley, vice president; G. Y. Travis, secretary, and D. M. Ogilvie treasurer. Mr. Steinfeld stated that the members of the nominating committee thought it advisable to select a board of directors and the names of the following gentlemen were submitted: Thompson Andrews, W. C. Davidson, J. W. Gipner, N. G. Ma-

crum, John W. Moore, Jr., and D. A. Devine.

On a motion by Joseph Betz the names of the officers and board of directors decided on by the nominating committee were ratified.

Harry Smith made a motion that a committee be appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws. Mr. Croxall expressed the opinion that the board of directors should perform the duties recommended by Mr. Smith. This was agreed to by Mr. Smith and a motion was made and carried to that effect.

Mr. Hanley expressed himself as believing it to be a wise move to appoint members to serve on the new board and that a membership fee of $1 be charged. The chairman stated that he believed better results would accrue by calling another meeting, when a possibly larger attendance would be present. He thought by properly agitating the proposed rejuvenation of the board and arousing further interest that a meeting of great proportions would result, and hence a better opportunity be afforded for starting the organization off with a substantial membership. Mr. Steinfeld thought Mr. Croxall's suggestion a good one, and also expressed the belief that it would be advisable to defer the action of organizing permanently until another meeting was called.

Elijah Hill gave his views on the question. He stated he considered it prudent to have the names of all present enrolled and that each should pledge himself by paying a membership fee. Mr. Hill thought by this means the board would be given a substantial foundation and that it would tend to encourage others to fall in line.

T. H. Burgess asked for an explanation as to the duties of the board of directors. He also desired information regarding Mr. Hill's suggestion to have those present at the meeting sign their names to a paper, and asked if by so doing they would become identified directly with the board of trade. The chairman explained that it was the intention to get as many signatures as was possible, and that each and everyone would be considered full-fledged members.

Councilman Nice gave an opinion that it would be discreet to defer further action until the by-laws and constitution were drawn up. Mr. Travis thought as Mr. Nice, and suggested that the board of directors get to work immediately and have that part of the business attended to in time for a meeting to be held some time next week.

Mr. Devine reiterated his former statement that he considered it in keeping with a business-like meeting to start off the organization with a subscription. Mr. Hill favored Mr. Devine's idea, and said that by following that suggestion all present at the meeting would be committing themselves to take active interest.

A standing vote was taken on the proposition with the result that the secretary was instructed to prepare a paper for the signatures of those who wished to become members of the board.

A suggestion which readily met with hearty favor was made by Mr. Hill. He thought the press should use all possible influence in booming the city's interests and induce propertyholders to get together and establish sites for the location of new industries which may be secured. He argued that if this was done it would greatly facilitate matters and assist in a great measure those whose duties it shall be to show up the city's advantages to any representative manufacturer seeking a location.

W. A. Calhoun, a member of the retiring board of trade, stated he had a copy of that body's constitution and by-laws, which he thought might be of benefit in drafting the new rules. The chairman requested Mr. Calhoun to furnish his copy to one of the board of directors, and that gentleman promised to do so.

The chairman asked the assemblage

DESPONDENCY LED TO DEATH BY POISON.

JAMES HEVERLY SWALLOWED
FOUR OUNCES OF LAUDANUM.

Lingered Many Hours—Wrote a Letter Saying He Had No Friends
And Would Die.

Despondency resulting from incessant indulgence in liquor, prompted James Heverly, aged 48 years, to take his own life. He died at his home on Second street at 10:30 o'clock this morning after three physicians had vainly endeavored during all of Friday night to save him.

Heverly swallowed the contents of a bottle containing four ounces of laudanum. At about 4:30 o'clock Friday evening he went to his home, where his wife was awaiting him, and on entering the door he produced the bottle containing the drug, telling Mrs. Heverly he proposed killing himself. He was under the influence of liquor and his wife, who had on several previous occasions heard him talk of suiciding, paid little attention to him. She says she did not have any idea the bottle contained poison.

Heverly went to the kitchen for a few moments and on coming into the room where his wife was sitting, he held the vial before her, showing about half of the contents gone. Then stepping back to the door he swallowed the remainder of the drug before her eyes. She made no effort to stop her husband, believing he was attempting to frighten her by feigning suicide.

After Heverly had taken the second dose he went to the kitchen door, where he smashed the bottle on a pile of brick. He then started back into the room where Mrs. Heverly was. As he entered he began to stagger. The woman attempted to get hold of his hand, but he pushed her aside, and then for the first time she noticed by the glassy stare in his eyes, that something was wrong. Two physicians were summoned and worked with the man for several hours. Another doctor was finally secured, but nothing could be done.

The body was taken to the rooms of Undertaker West, and later removed to the home of Mrs. Mary Laughlin, on Jackson street, a sister of the dead man. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Heverly has been employed as a laborer in this city for several years. It is said his family relations were not pleasant and that his wife had threatened to leave him, which is thought to have been the prompting of his rash act. He had been pre-meditating suicide for several days and wrote letters to a number of his relatives, stating his intention. Friday morning he mailed a letter to his brother, Charles Heverly, in this city, saying he was tired of living; that his friends had deserted him, and that he would be a corpse at midnight. The letter was received Friday evening and Charles went to his brother's home to find him in an unconscious state. He was then too far gone to revive, but owing to the extremely large dose of the poison his death did not result at the time he had calculated on being dead.

A wife and two children survive. Calvin, a son, resides in this city, and a daughter lives at Tyrone, Pa.

AN ENCLOSED PARK

WILL BE PROVIDED FOR PAT-
RONS OF BASE BALL.

Site Selected Near Chester Mill
Which W. E. Morrow Will Fix
Up Without Delay.

After many years spent in the difficult task of attempting to equip and maintain base ball clubs in East Liverpool without being able to collect admissions from patrons of the game, the city is to have an enclosed park, and that, too, without delay.

Wm. E. Morrow, of this city, yesterday closed the deal in which he leases a tract of land immediately west of the Southside mill. The gentleman will let the contract at once for building the fence and grand stand.

The enclosure will be 42x175 feet

THE CITY HAS A CHANCE TO GET A GLASS FACTORY

and a fence 10 feet in height will be erected around three sides. The fourth will be occupied by the grand stand with a seating capacity of about 1,500.

Mr. Morrow, with W. A. Calhoun and several others, were on the ground yesterday and spent some time in figuring out the arrangement of the park and fixing lines. Mr. Calhoun will lay out the diamond, thus assuring a perfect piece of work in this regard, as he has had a great deal of experience.

Mr. Morrow proposes to lose no time in letting the various contracts, and it is thought the work will be well under way by the middle of next week.

As soon as the grounds are in readiness the proprietor will book games with all the principal amateur teams in Pennsylvania and Ohio. Games will be arranged ahead with teams from cities sending picnic parties to Rock Springs, and the city is promised a series of contests such as the city has not witnessed in years.

BADLY INJURED.

ACCIDENT TO ROBERT HAWKINS
AT UNION POTTERY.

Broken Mold Thrown From a Window
Struck Him With Force.

Robert Hawkins, manager at the Union pottery, was hit on the head by a discarded plate mold yesterday afternoon and received an injury which will lay him up for some time.

Mr. Hawkins was outside of the building repairing a broken steam pipe when a boy threw the mold from an upstairs window. The object struck the manager with such force as to inflict an ugly wound, and one which may develop into serious complications.

He was assisted to the office of a physician, where the wound was dressed and the gentleman made as comfortable as possible. He is suffering considerable pain today.

The practice of throwing broken molds and ware from the windows has become so general that the wonder is there are not more accidents from this cause. Steps will be taken to stop the custom at the Union, at least.

PROJECT NOT DEAD.

STREET RAILWAY LINE TO SA-
LEM STILL POSSIBLE.

Men Interested Have Just Been on the Ground And Over the Proposed Route.

The proposed East Liverpool-Salem street railway project is not dead. U. J. Smith, of Cleveland, one of the holders of the franchise for the line, was here this week, accompanied by a capitalist presumably interested, and they drove over the proposed route to Salem.

It is stated that a practical surveyor will be here next week to make an inspection of the whole route. Although nothing could be learned from the Cleveland gentleman regarding his plans, the fact that a surveyor is to follow him indicates the possibility of important developments later.

Proposition Submitted to the Board of Trade Right Af- ter Organizing.

$25,000 STOCK MUST BE SOLD

Practical Men Said to Be at the Head of the Projected
Enterprise.

WHAT IT IS PROPOSED TO DO

The Old Specialty Glass Company's
Site to Be Purchased And Utilized
A Factory Could Be Erected in a
Very Short Time.

At the conclusion of the organization of the new board of trade at city hall last evening, a proposition was submitted to that body which will probably result in the institution of a new glass house on the site of the old Specialty plant.

James N. Hanley, who was elected vice president of the board, submitted the proposition and immediate action on the matter was taken. Mr. Hanley stated that the company now formed had no connection with the Specialty concern, but was composed of practical and experienced men with the interests of the city at heart.

It is the desire of the new company to capitalize with $50,000 capital stock. No bonus is asked from the board of trade, and the only assistance asked is that the board promote the deal by aiding in the sale of stock. It is the intention to dispose of 250 shares at $100 each, thus making $25,000 with which the company proposes to buy the old site of the Specialty factory and also the machinery.

John Manor, formerly president of the Specialty company, was present at the meeting and he was called on to give an expression relative to the profits, etc., of the glass business. He gave positive assurance that there were no risks to run and that a handsome profit would be realized by the stockholders. Mr. Manor further stated that when once in full operation the plant would employ 150 men.

Attorney Travis considered the proposition a flattering one and urged the board of trade to take action without delay. He made a motion, which carried, asking that a committee of three—later changed to six—be appointed to confer with the projectors of the new concern. Messrs. Gipner, Ferguson, Devine, Hanley, Travis and Willis Davidson were chosen, and at the conclusion of the board of trade meeting, held a conference in Clerk Hanley's office with Mr. Manor and others of the new company.

While no definite decision has as yet been arrived at, there is little doubt but that the matter will be carried through to a successful climax. Much stock has already been sold and there is every reason to believe the balance will find ready purchasers. It is the belief of several interested in the project that work on rebuilding the old factory will commence before the summer is half over. Mr. Manor says if the stock is disposed of within the next few weeks, the plant will be ready for operation in about two months.

River Rose One Foot.

The river rose one foot during yesterday and last night, and the marks at the wharf this morning registered 8 feet and rising slowly. The Greenwood passed down last night, the Virginia passed up and the Lorena and Virginia will be down tonight. The Jim Brown passed up yesterday with a tow of empties.

Score 28 to 18.

The baseball game played at Rock Springs park yesterday afternoon between the Belmont club and the high school team was won by the Belmont boys by a score of 28 to 18.

His face struck a projecting piece of machinery, cutting a gash about four inches long on the cheekbone. The cut extended from the nose to the right temple and barely missed the eye.

Mr. Shooks was assisted to Dr. Calhoun's office, where the wound was dressed. It bled profusely and was spread to such an extent that it required four stitches to draw it together. In addition to this wound Mr. Shooks was considerably bruised and shaken up. He will not be able to resume work for some time.

Women Who Work

Nine out of ten women are afflicted with some of the common ailments known as female diseases. Among women whose employment requires them to stand on their feet or sit in the same position all day, not one in twenty-five escape these troubles. The average feminine constitution cannot, unaided, withstand the strain to which steady, trying work subjects them. The organs of womanhood are so delicate and finely adjusted that the inevitable result of constant standing, lifting, stooping or straining is displacement of vital parts. The disorder is usually slight at first, but soon develops into irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhœa or falling of the womb. Wine of Cardui is the right remedy for female weakness. As such it is offered to you. Wine of Cardui will not perform miracles, but it will, if taken as directed, insure painless and regular operation of the menstrual function. It will drive out every trace of leucorrhœa, and will so strengthen the ligaments that falling of the womb will be an impossibility. Don't you think it would pay you to try a medicine with such a record as that? You can get a $1 bottle of Wine of Cardui at any drug store and use it in the privacy of your home.

WINE OF CARDUI

Townsend, Ga., May 18, 1899.

I have been in bad health with falling of the womb, weak back, nervousness and heart palpitation. At monthly periods I would be in bed suffering great pain. I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Draught, and they have brought me wonderful relief. I have no pain, and do not stop work at the monthly period.

Mr. Shooks was assisted to Dr. Calhoun's office, where the wound was dressed. It bled profusely and was spread to such an extent that it required four stitches to draw it together. Women Who Work

Nine out of ten women are afflicted with some of the common ailments known as female diseases. Among women whose employment requires them to stand on their feet or sit in the same position all day, not one in twenty-five escape these troubles. The average feminine constitution cannot, unaided, withstand the strain to which steady, trying work subjects them. The organs of womanhood are so delicate and finely adjusted that the inevitable result of constant standing, lifting, stooping or straining is displacement of vital parts. The disorder is usually slight at first, but soon develops into irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea or falling of the womb. Wine of Cardui is the right remedy for female weakness. As such it is offered to you. Wine of Cardui will not perform miracles, but it will, if taken as directed, insure painless and regular operation of the menstrual function. It will drive out every trace of leucorrhoea, and will so strengthen the ligaments that falling of the womb will be an impossibility. Don't you think it would pay you to try a medicine with such a record as that? You can get a $1 bottle of Wine of Cardui at any drug store and use it in the privacy of your home.

WEST END WANTS CIRCUS GROUNDS

Its Residents Think the Old Park
Should Be Improved and
Fitted For Use.

NOW AN UNHEALTHY SPOT

They Say the Health Authorities
Should Interest Themselves And a
Small Fill Would Adapt the Grounds to the People's Needs.

East Liverpool residents will be entertained by at least three circuses this season, and the probabilities are they will all exhibit on the other side of the river.

This has caused people of the West End to again revive the subject of improvements to the old West End park.

It has been stated upon good authority that the contracts with South-side parties for the lot on which to show, reads conditionally, providing that in case the West End grounds are free from water the negotiations are off with them. However, this may be, it is safe to say the lot in this city will not be in condition to exhibit upon, and this is where the general public, especially the business people of streets leading to the grounds, have a kick.

They make the claim that in keeping up their taxes and the various obligations a business man is compelled to meet, they are certainly entitled to all the consideration the city can give in the matter of throwing business in their way. One of them said last evening:

"We are not selfish in this matter, but we do think the various outdoor exhibitions intended to draw patronage from this city should be held in town. It is a matter of no importance or concern of ours where they go so long as they stay here. Now, you may wonder how this could be brought about, but is a very easy matter. If the council and those of the sanitary authorities under whose jurisdiction such matters come would do their duty, the West End grounds—the only spot in the city which is accessible to a railroad show—would be improved so that the water would never reach it.

"Almost all the sewage from the side of the hill above Jethro street empties into the lot, which, in addition to the back waters from the run, makes it extremely unhealthy. Two or three feet of a fill over the surface of the lot after it has been properly sewered would place it high and dry. If the health authorities would interest themselves, the improvement could be made in time to be of some benefit to the city this season."

WORK IS COMPLETED.

MAYOR DAVIDSON'S OFFICE GIVEN A NEW COAT OF PAPER.

His Honor And Chief Thompson Are Alleged to Have Been Color Blind When They Selected the Paper.

The paperhangers who have been engaged at the city hall the past few days completed their work Thursday afternoon and the "waiting room" and mayor's office look cleaner than a pin.

Several of the officers have unflinchingly insinuated that Mayor Davidson and Chief Thompson are color blind—or were, at least, at the time they selected the new paper. Clerk Hanley greatly injured the feelings of the mayor and chief by making the remark that the "waiting room" walls look like "Joseph's coat of many colors."

Health Officer Burgess was asked to express an opinion on the judgment of those who selected the paper. The mayor and chief were present at the time, and of course, Mr. Burgess had to respect their feelings. Accordingly he stated that he thought the selection a very good one, and a moment later when his questioners did not observe him, the health officer turned to the others present and winked.

Mayor Davidson's office is gayly decorated with huge posies of a cherry red hue. The lower portion of the walls are covered with a coating of plain dark green paper, while the flowery designs are plastered over the upper portion of the walls and on the ceiling. The combination is certainly very striking, and his honor must be given credit for having good ideas of originality.

WEST END WANTS CIRCUS GROUNDS

Its Residents Think the Old Park
Should Be Improved and
Fitted For Use.

NOW AN UNHEALTHY SPOT

They Say the Health Authorities
Should Interest Themselves And a
Small Fill Would Adapt the Grounds to the People's Needs.

East Liverpool residents will be entertained by at least three circuses this season, and the probabilities are they will all exhibit on the other side of the river.

This has caused people of the West End to again revive the subject of improvements to the old West End park.

It has been stated upon good authority that the contracts with South-side parties for the lot on which to show, reads conditionally, providing that in case the West End grounds are free from water the negotiations are off with them. However, this may be, it is safe to say the lot in this city will not be in condition to exhibit upon, and this is where the general public, especially the business people of streets leading to the grounds, have a kick.

They make the claim that in keeping up their taxes and the various obligations a business man is compelled to meet, they are certainly entitled to all the consideration the city can give in the matter of throwing business in their way. One of them said last evening:

"We are not selfish in this matter, but we do think the various outdoor exhibitions intended to draw patronage from this city should be held in town. It is a matter of no importance or concern of ours where they go so long as they stay here. Now, you may wonder how this could be brought about, but is a very easy matter. If the council and those of the sanitary authorities under whose jurisdiction such matters come would do their duty, the West End grounds—the only spot in the city which is accessible to a railroad show—would be improved so that the water would never reach it.

"Almost all the sewage from the side of the hill above Jethro street empties into the lot, which, in addition to the back waters from the run, makes it extremely unhealthy. Two or three feet of a fill over the surface of the lot after it has been properly sewered would place it high and dry. If the health authorities would interest themselves, the improvement could be made in time to be of some benefit to the city this season."

The three are on the way to the Presbyterian general assembly, which meets at Philadelphia next week.

Mr. Hays was formerly a member of the Nez Perces tribe and has been unusually successful in his work among his own people. He was educated by a missionary, Miss Sue McBeth, a sister of Mrs. Crawford.

THE NEW BOARD OF TRADE.

Although the mass meeting held last evening for the purpose of reorganizing the board of trade was not as largely attended as such an important meeting should have been, it nevertheless attracted quite a number of prominent business men, who, acting in a business-like way, proceeded at once to form the nucleus of an organization, which can, if it will, play an important part in promoting the prosperity and general welfare of the city. The meeting was characterized by zeal and earnestness which augurs well for the growth and future usefulness of the body. One important business proposition has already been submitted to the consideration of the board, and by the time the organization is in working order others will doubtless be forthcoming.

The result of the meeting is highly satisfactory and most encouraging. East Liverpool again has a board of trade with men of standing and influence as its officers and a considerable membership already enrolled. It promises to be a working organization, and it must be if it is to accomplish anything. We believe thoroughly in the policy of advertising; so do the majority of business men. The mission of the board of trade should be to advertise East Liverpool and its advantages. If a business house wants business, it sends its advertisements and its agents out to get it. A city must do likewise. The board of trade, with a membership of several hundred, which number should easily be enrolled in a very short time, will have that number of agents on the lookout for the city's interests, and with the hearty cooperation and earnest backing of the press, which it has already, ought to be able to advertise the town in a manner which will produce lasting benefits.

East Liverpool is a live city; no citizen and no person acquainted with the town will dispute this. That it has been without an active and vigilant board of trade for so long is surprising, since every business man is aware how useful such an organization, rightly managed, can be. One does not have to go far from home to see what boards of trade can accomplish. Youngstown, Akron, Canton, Steubenville and a dozen smaller cities and towns in eastern Ohio can point to industries, representing enormous investments and adding all the time to the prosperity of the whole community, which have been secured by reaching out for them.

What others have done, we can do. Our business men are as active and progressive as can be found anywhere. It only needs unity of effort, public spirit and work to accomplish lasting good. Let the board of trade make a campaign on these lines and it will be a winning one.

NEW AMERICAN PRODUCTS.

At the present rate of development of two important industries, America will soon be raising not only her own coffee, but the sugar to sweeten it. This nation is the greatest consumer of coffee in the world. Recent investigations by the government show that the coffee producing area of Greater America—in Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines—is vast and capable of immense development. The same districts are also producers of sugar and capable of almost indefinite expansion in that direction. With the growth of the beet sugar industry in the old states, there is ground for hope, that a new and profitable industry is open to American agriculturists.

The talk of a street-railway to Salem has started up again. If it were the railroad that had started, the news would be worth something. But there seems to be life in the project yet, and while there is life there is hope.

Fortunes have been wildly tossed about by the bulls of Wall street in the past few days and terribly rent by the claws of the bears. But the excitement is over and legitimate business has not suffered.

The board of trade can win golden opinions and something more substantial if it sets about its work in the right way.

Confidence has returned to Wall street, but confidence in Wall street has not reached the general public.

Hearty greetings to the new board of trade. May it lead a long and useful life.

Orcutt on "The Duty of the Church Membership to the Sunday School."

for any further suggestions, and J. M. Aten took occasion to point out some serious defects in the road between this city and Wellsville, and thought some action should be taken for the betterment of that highway.

Secretary Travis had by this time prepared the paper for the signatures of those in attendance, and the same was passed around, each member who signed pledging himself to take active interest and pay the sum of $1. Thirty-seven names were recorded.

An effort was made to reach a decision on the time of holding the next meeting, but the matter was left to the board of directors, who will announce the date through the press. Adjournment was then in order.

The meeting was of a gratifying nature to the projectors and the selection of officers could not possibly have been better. There is every indication that the new board will be a business-like body, and that East Liverpool will reap good results therefrom.

THE NEW BOARD OF TRADE.

Although the mass meeting held last evening for the purpose of reorganizing the board of trade was not as largely attended as such an important meeting should have been, it nevertheless attracted quite a number of prominent business men, who, acting in a business-like way, proceeded at once to form the nucleus of an organization, which can, if it will, play an important part in promoting the prosperity and general welfare of the city. The meeting was characterized by zeal and earnestness which augurs well for the growth and future usefulness of the body. One important business proposition has already been submitted to the consideration of the board, and by the time the organization is in working order others will doubtless be forthcoming.

The result of the meeting is highly satisfactory and most encouraging. East Liverpool again has a board of trade with men of standing and influence as its officers and a considerable membership already enrolled. It promises to be a working organization, and it must be if it is to accomplish anything. We believe thoroughly in the policy of advertising; so do the majority of business men. The mission of the board of trade should be to advertise East Liverpool and its advantages. If a business house wants business, it sends its advertisements and its agents out to get it. A city must do likewise. The board of trade, with a membership of several hundred, which number should easily be enrolled in a very short time, will have that number of agents on the lookout for the city's interests, and with the hearty cooperation and earnest backing of the press, which it has already, ought to be able to advertise the town in a manner which will produce lasting benefits.

East Liverpool is a live city; no citizen and no person acquainted with the town will dispute this. That it has been without an active and vigilant board of trade for so long is surprising, since every business man is aware how useful such an organization, rightly managed, can be. One does not have to go far from home to see what boards of trade can accomplish. Youngstown, Akron, Canton, Steubenville and a dozen smaller cities and towns in eastern Ohio can point to industries, representing enormous investments and adding all the time to the prosperity of the whole community, which have been secured by reaching out for them.

What others have done, we can do. Our business men are as active and progressive as can be found anywhere. It only needs unity of effort, public spirit and work to accomplish lasting good. Let the board of trade make a campaign on these lines and it will be a winning one.

NEW AMERICAN PRODUCTS.

At the present rate of development of two important industries, America will soon be raising not only her own coffee, but the sugar to sweeten it. This nation is the greatest consumer of coffee in the world. Recent investigations by the government show that the coffee producing area of Greater America—in Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines—is vast and capable of immense development. The same districts are also producers of sugar and capable of almost indefinite expansion in that direction. With the growth of the beet sugar industry in the old states, there is ground for hope, that a new and profitable industry is open to American agriculturists.

The talk of a street railway to Salem has started up again. If it were the railroad that had started, the news would be worth something. But there seems to be life in the project yet, and while there is life there is hope.

Fortunes have been wildly tossed about by the bulls of Wall street in the past few days and terribly rent by the claws of the bears. But the excitement is over and legitimate business has not suffered.

The board of trade can win golden opinions and something more substantial if it sets about its work in the right way.

Confidence has returned to Wall street, but confidence in Wall street has not reached the general public.

Hearty greetings to the new board of trade. May it lead a long and useful life.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Those Interested in Their Welfare
Hold a Convention Tuesday
Evening.

A convention of the Sabbath school workers of the city will be held at the First M. P. church next Tuesday evening. An interesting program has been arranged, and the music, under the leadership of the Methodist Protestant Sunday school orchestra, promises to be an important feature. The program opens at 8 o'clock with music and devotional exercises. Rev. J. W. Gorrell will speak on "The Sunday School; Why?" and Rev. George W. Orcutt on "The Duty of the Church Membership to the Sunday School."

A number of interesting topics suggested by the recent county convention will be discussed. The meeting will close at 9:30.

FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Rev. S. B. Salmon to Make the Address—Preparations for Observance.

The Memorial day committee, appointed some time ago by the Grand Army, has made considerable progress, although it was not ready to make a full report at the meeting last evening.

Rev. S. B. Salmon, of Smithfield, a member of General Garfield Camp, Sons of Veterans, has been secured to make the memorial address.

At the next meeting the various sub-committees will be appointed who will do the decorating in the outlying cemeteries and final arrangements made for the celebration of the day in a fitting manner.

for any further suggestions, and J. M. Aten took occasion to point out some serious defects in the road between this city and Wellsville, and thought some action should be taken for the betterment of that highway.

Secretary Travis had by this time prepared the paper for the signatures of those in attendance, and the same was passed around, each member who signed pledging himself to take active interest and pay the sum of $1. Thirty-seven names were recorded.

An effort was made to reach a decision on the time of holding the next meeting, but the matter was left to the board of directors, who will announce the date through the press. Adjournment was then in order.

The meeting was of a gratifying nature to the projectors and the selection of officers could not possibly have been better. There is every indication that the new board will be a business-like body, and that East Liverpool will reap good results therefrom.

BODY FOUND AT CHESTER THAT OF AN ALLEGHENY LAD.

He Was Drowned March 22 And Was
Harry Gaughan, 6 Years
of Age.

The News Review received a telephone message from Thomas B. Gaughan, at Allegheny, late this afternoon asking for a description of the body of the boy which was found in the river on the Southside yesterday morning. A description of the clothing worn and the medals which were around the lad's neck convinced Mr. Gaughan that the body was that of his son, Harry, aged 6 years, who fell into the river at the foot of Highland avenue March 22. Mr. Gaughan will arrive in East Liverpool this evening and the body will probably be taken back to Allegheny at once.

The corpse was buried yesterday by Undertaker Bowers, on the Gardner property, immediately after the inquest, the result of which was announced exclusively in last evening's News Review, and which led to the identification of the body today.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

William Clendenning Accused of Stealing Tools at a
Pottery.

A warrant is out for the arrest of William Clendenning, who is charged with the theft of a number of tools from the Taylor, Lee & Smith Pottery company. George Conn preferred the charge. It is said that Conn, who is employed at the pottery, was calling on Clendenning and upon some pretext managed to get into the cellar of the house where Clendenning lives. He claims to have discovered his stolen tools there. At noon today Clendenning had not yet been arrested, but a friend of his stated that he would voluntarily answer the charge at the squire's office this afternoon.

WANTS A DIVORCE.

LISBON MAN MAKES CHARGES
AGAINST HIS WIFE.

Will of the Late Charles F. Bauman
Probated—More Jurors
Drawn.

Lisbon, May 11.—(Special.)—William Little wants a divorce from Bella G. Little. They were married in Lisbon in 1890 and have three children. The husband charges infidelity.

The will of the late Charles F. Bauman, of East Liverpool, was admitted to probate today. Mrs. Bauman was in court and elected to accept the terms of the will and was appointed executor, no bond being required. J. J. Purinton, Smith Fowler and F. E. Grosshans were appointed appraisers. Charles W. Bauman was appointed guardian for Clarence H. Bauman, minor child of the deceased.

On application the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company was released from the bond of Elmer E. Black, of Salineville, as administrator of the estate of the late Elizabeth McGillivray, of Washington township.

J. B. Baker, administrator of the estate of Warner White, was given an order of public sale for lot 157 in Peter Ambler's addition to Salem, in order to pay debts of the estate.

Andrew McBane, administrator of the estate of the late Nancy McIntosh, was given an order of private sale for an interest in Madison township lands.

The panel of the petit jury has become incomplete and the following names were drawn this morning, the persons named to report for duty next Tuesday morning at 9: John Patterson, Madison township; W. E. Neff, Leetonia; B. F. Shook, Unity township; Cassius Sanor, Hanover township; George D. Flugan, Center township; George W. Saltsman, Washington township; James S. Windram, Wellsville; Frank Rollins, Salem; William McClaine, Salem; Henry Chambers, East Liverpool.

Court adjourned last evening until Monday morning.

STILL INCOMPLETE

IS THE TASK OF THE POTTERY
SCALE COMMITTEES.

A Multitude of Details Which It Requires Much Time to Decide.

The several committees who have in hand the adoption of prices to govern certain classes of pottery work have been holding nightly sessions throughout the week, but none of them have as yet completed their work.

The committee handling the new scale for the printing trade held another meeting last night, and it is now thought they will require but one more session to wind up the business. William Elder, a member of the committee, returned to his home in Akron this morning.

With those in charge of the kilndrawers' dispute the work is progressing as rapidly as could be expected, and the will finish next week.

When it is considered that the committee representing the slipmakers have already visited a majority of the slipmakers of the city and will continue the investigations until they have covered the whole ground, it is not surprising that their work is not yet completed. However, it is thought they will have completed the figuring by the latter part of next week.

TAKEN TO LISBON.

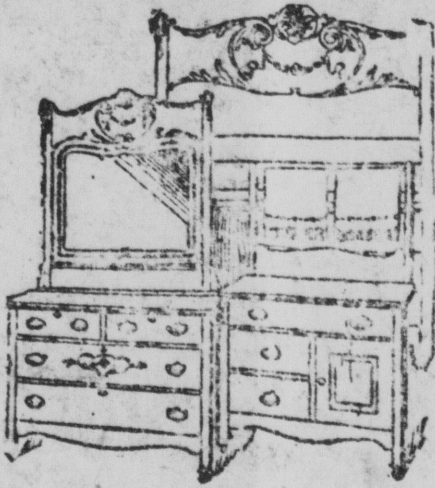

Mrs. Matursh Taken Before the Probate Judge—Nick Murray Taken Over Also.

Mrs. Lucile Matursh was taken to Lisbon this morning by Chief Thompson, where she will be tried by the probate judge on the charge of insanity. Attorney F. E. Grosshans is confident he can prove she is mentally unsound and irresponsible.

Officer Auferheide took Nick Murray to Lisbon in company with the Italian woman. Murray was captured by Officer Stafford Friday night. He skipped out a few days ago on learning that Sheriff Noragon had a subpoena summoning him before the grand jury for selling liquor to an habitual drunkard.

Stealing Tools at a
Pottery.

A warrant is out for the arrest of William Clendenning, who is charged with the theft of a number of tools from the Taylor, Lee & Smith Pottery company. George Conn preferred the charge. It is said that Conn, who is employed at the pottery, was calling on Clendenning and upon some pretext managed to get into the cellar of the house where Clendenning lives. He claims to have discovered his stolen tools there. At noon today Clendenning had not yet been arrested, but a friend of his stated that he would voluntarily answer the charge at the squire's office this afternoon.

Probated—More Jurors
Drawn.

Lisbon, May 11.—(Special.)—William Little wants a divorce from Bella G. Little. They were married in Lisbon in 1890 and have three children. The husband charges infidelity.

The will of the late Charles F. Bauman, of East Liverpool, was admitted to probate today. Mrs. Bauman was in court and elected to accept the terms of the will and was appointed executor, no bond being required. J. J. Purinton, Smith Fowler and F. E. Grosshans were appointed appraisers. Charles W. Bauman was appointed guardian for Clarence H. Bauman, minor child of the deceased.

On application the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company was released from the bond of Elmer E. Black, of Salineville, as administrator of the estate of the late Elizabeth McGillivray, of Washington township.

J. B. Baker, administrator of the estate of Warner White, was given an order of public sale for lot 157 in Peter Ambler's addition to Salem, in order to pay debts of the estate.

Andrew McBane, administrator of the estate of the late Nancy McIntosh, was given an order of private sale for an interest in Madison township lands.

The panel of the petit jury has become incomplete and the following names were drawn this morning, the persons named to report for duty next Tuesday morning at 9: John Patterson, Madison township; W. E. Neff, Leetonia; B. F. Shook, Unity township; Cassius Sanor, Hanover township; George D. Flugan, Center township; George W. Saltsman, Washington township; James S. Windram, Wellsville; Frank Rollins, Salem; William McClaine, Salem; Henry Chambers, East Liverpool.

Court adjourned last evening until Monday morning.

STILL INCOMPLETE

IS THE TASK OF THE POTTERY
SCALE COMMITTEES.

A Multitude of Details Which It Requires Much Time to Decide.

The several committees who have in hand the adoption of prices to govern certain classes of pottery work have been holding nightly sessions throughout the week, but none of them have as yet completed their work.

The committee handling the new scale for the printing trade held another meeting last night, and it is now thought they will require but one more session to wind up the business. William Elder, a member of the committee, returned to his home in Akron this morning.

With those in charge of the kilndrawers' dispute the work is progressing as rapidly as could be expected, and the will finish next week.

When it is considered that the committee representing the slipmakers have already visited a majority of the slipmakers of the city and will continue the investigations until they have covered the whole ground, it is not surprising that their work is not yet completed. However, it is thought they will have completed the figuring by the latter part of next week.

TAKEN TO LISBON.

Mrs. Matursh Taken Before the Probate Judge—Nick Murray Taken Over Also.

Mrs. Lucile Matursh was taken to Lisbon this morning by Chief Thompson, where she will be tried by the probate judge on the charge of insanity. Attorney F. E. Grosshans is confident he can prove she is mentally unsound and irresponsible.

Officer Aufderheide took Nick Murray to Lisbon in company with the Italian woman. Murray was captured by Officer Stafford Friday night. He skipped out a few days ago on learning that Sheriff Noragon had a subpoena summoning him before the grand jury for selling liquor to an habitual drunkard.

The News Review received a telephone message from Thomas B. Gaughan, at Allegheny, late this afternoon asking for a description of the body of the boy which was found in the river on the Southside yesterday morning. A description of the clothing worn and the medals which were around the lad's neck convinced Mr. Gaughan that the body was that of his son, Harry, aged 6 years, who fell into the river at the foot of Highland avenue March 22. Mr. Gaughan will arrive in East Liverpool this evening and the body will probably be taken back to Allegheny at once.

The corpse was buried yesterday by Undertaker Bowers, on the Gardner property, immediately after the inquest, the result of which was announced exclusively in last evening's News Review, and which led to the identification of the body today.

BUSINESS IS SOUND

Legitimate Trade Has Not Been Affected by Wall Street Conditions.

IRON MILLS BEHIND ORDERS

Those at Pittsburg, so Stated, by Dun's Review — Reports From Nearly Every City Show Exceptional Volume of Transactions.

New York, May 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

A panic in Wall street does not mean that legitimate business has suddenly ceased to prosper, nor is the condition of mercantile trade and manufacture adversely affected by a violent change in prices of securities. Throughout the entire country fundamental conditions were never so sound as at the present time, reports from nearly every city this week showing an exceptional volume of transactions and payments promptly met.

Mills Behind With Orders.

Production is not overtaking demand at the finished steel mills, and all Pittsburg plants are two months behind orders, while 90 days is the limit at many. Although the expected advance in bar iron did not appear, the tone continues firm and orders are liberal. Billets remain at the top point for prompt delivery, but reasonable terms are available on forward contracts. In structural shapes and railway equipment there is all the business in sight that makers desire, and no effort is made to secure additional orders. Less urgency is recorded in pig iron markets, but buyers do not find terms more satisfactory, and, in fact, forge and foundry iron is rather more firmly held. Although the total number of furnaces in blast on May 1 was 40 smaller than on Feb. 1, 1900, the Iron Age estimates the weekly capacity at 301,125 tons, which exceeds all previous highwater marks. The activity of steel manufacturing is emphasized by the decrease of 34,279 tons in furnace stocks during April, despite the unparalleled production.

Less sensational events transpired in the cereal markets than in the preceding week, although quotations are slow to recede. Corn eased off a few cents, but is still about 10 cents a bushel, or nearly 25 per cent above the quotation at the corresponding date in two preceding years. Western operators continue to entertain strong views, and appear little daunted by the larger receipts attracted to interior cities by the unusually profitable prices offered. For the week arrivals aggregated 3,247,094 bushels, against 2,196,202 last year. Foreign purchasers have been driven out of the domestic markets by the high quotations, and Atlantic exports for the week have been 1,211,244 bushels, compared with 3,709,880 a year ago.

Cotton and Wool.

Recovery in the price of cotton was only temporary, and heavy liquidation of options was accompanied by a fall in spot middling uplands to the lowest figure recorded this year. Even at a loss of $9 a bale, compared with the quotation prevailing a year ago, there is little disposition to secure raw material, either by domestic or foreign spinners. As the end of the crop year approaches there is no sign of the famine predicted by many experts earlier in the season, and with most monotonous regularity port receipts continue two or three times as large as in the same week last year. With a large yield probable this year, and unsatisfactory conditions at the mills, there is no inducement to hold stocks. The situation is similar regarding wool and woolsens. Raw material is abundant, and a large clip probable, while manufacturers have only a light demand for goods.

Failures for the week numbered 187 in the United States, against 192 last year, and 26 in Canada, against 15 last year.

MARKET MORE CALM.

PROGRESS MADE IN RE-ESTABLISHING CONFIDENCE.

Natural Rebound in Prices—Gains in Some Stocks—Some Features of Market Friday.

New York May 11.—Rapid progress was made in re-establishing confidence in Wall street Friday, and there was a natural rebound in prices. That is to say, the fact of the rebound was very natural after the extent of the declines of Thursday, but the range of the recovery was surprising. Large progress was made toward wiping out the net losses which remained Thursday night after the recovery had already set in on the exchange. In a number of stocks which were not acutely affected Thursday, Friday's price rose above Wednesday's closing level, and in Missouri Pacific Thursday's net loss was recovered, with three points to spare, the extreme advance reaching 15 points. There was a good deal of trepidation still evident Friday morning, owing to the vague dread that there might be Stock Exchange houses which would be unable to meet their obligations after Thursday's drastic experience. The market was therefore unsettled and feverish, even after the strong opening, but when the official announcement was made that the clearing sheets of all the members of the Stock Exchange had gone through the Stock Exchange clearing house perfectly and that all their checks had been honored, a feeling of relief was manifested and steadily grew throughout the day. During the latter part of the day there was a resumption of what looked like a speculative movement for the rise led by Union Pacific. The buoyancy of this stock and the accompanying strength of the southwesterners was based upon rumors and assumptions of the benefits to accrue to Union Pacific from a change in control of Northern Pacific, which was still stoutly claimed by the Union Pacific party. Undoubtedly there were very many speculative losers of great resources in the collapse of Thursday who retained their nerve and determination and who sat about to recoup themselves by new speculation in the market. Other buyers were those who had gotten out early in Thursday's slump and who still saw a profit in getting back at the prices ruling Friday. The bargain hunters were also on hand in some force, and there were many cash transactions, both in bonds and stocks, representing their purchases. This outcome of affairs was pretty well assured when the news was learned Friday morning of the settlement effected with the shorts in Northern Pacific on the basis of $150 per share. This removed the overshadowing fear from the market and the quotations for Northern Pacific on the tape at 150 still further allayed the apprehension. The stock sold at 200 for cash afterwards but the progress of the settlement with the shorts at the offices of the conflicting interests in Northern Pacific prevented any further disturbance on that ground. The measures taken by the banks which placed heavy loans on the market Thursday and their decision not to call the loans Friday completed the tranquilizing influences.

Restraining Order by a Judge.

The issuance of a conditional restraining order by a member of the supreme court of the state, hinging on the reaching of an agreement between the warring Northern Pacific factions, was a novelty, but it served the purpose. It furnished the leaders of the wrangling elements an excuse they were very glad to have to get together and patch up a truce.

The market closed strong at the top with a feeling of relief over Saturday's holiday. The gain extended in Union Pacific to 22, St. Paul and Lackawanna 17½, Consolidated Gas 16, Burlington and Amalgamated Copper 12½, International Power 11½, Baltimore and Ohio 11, St. Louis Southwestern preferred 10½, Sugar, Delaware and Hudson and General Electric 10, and representatives of practically all the important groups from 5 to 10.

Bonds, which were weaker Thursday, showed some wide recoveries, but others were weak. Total sales, par value, $5,930,000.

U. S. new 4s declined ¼ per cent on the last call.

So far as actual control of the Northern Pacific is concerned, the impression was gaining ground last night that it will be the party with the most money that will acquire it. Many of the daily papers and some of the financial papers Friday expressed the belief that control of the Northern Pacific was still vested in the Morgan-Hill party. On the other hand, one of the leading daily papers of the city and some of the financial organs of the street still express the opinion that the Harriman party is in control. One thing seemed settled last night, and that was that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. did not yet admit defeat. Late in the day Mr. Otto H. Kuhn, of the firm, did not hesitate to say: "We believe we have control."

J. J. Hill, on the other hand, however, was quite as decisive in reiterating his previous statements that "the control has not changed."

As a matter of fact, it is said there seems to be no reason for doubting that both interests have control so far as stock in their possession, plus contracts for delivery, are concerned. But which interest will eventually be able to vote a control in the form of actual certificates remains to be seen, and will, it was believed last night, not be definitely known until the annual meeting in the fall.

RETURNED WITH A GUN.

Settlement Made by Brokers at Pittsburg Didn't Suit a Speculator.

Pittsburg, May 11.—In the office of A. B. Baxter & Co., at No. 225 Fourth avenue, William Bradburn, who has been in Pittsburg for several days, tried to collect what he said was due him from Baxter & Co. at the point of a double-barrel shotgun, which he brought into the office with him.

There was a wind rush for the door, which resulted in the breaking of glass and the overturning of furniture. Bradburn was seized by W. W. Vensel, one of the partners in the firm, before he had time to pull the trigger of the gun, and was held until the officers arrived and took him into custody.

The trouble arose over the settlement of some trades which Bradburn had made during the dizzy flight of the stock market Thursday. His trades had been made through George Newport, an East End broker, who had turned the business over to Baxter & Co. to handle. Bradburn's profits, at the close of the market Thursday, it is alleged by him, amounted to about $2,000, and he wanted to close the trades and get his money out. He called at the office shortly before noon Friday. According to the statement of the members of the firm, the matter was satisfactorily adjusted, and arrangements were made to pay over the money. Bradburn, it seems, did not agree with this view of the affair, and made his own arrangements to obtain the cash.

Bradburn alleged that Newport owed him $9,000 by reason of his speculation, and that a note for $1,200 was due him from Newport. Baxter & Co. had no dealings with Bradburn except through Newport, and he was not in the office at the time of Bradburn's first visit.

Bradburn, it is alleged, came into the office and leveled the shotgun at Vensel and Newport, who were standing at a desk busy figuring. Vensel sprang toward the man with the gun and wrested it from his grasp, and Newport dodged in order to get out of the way if the gun should go off. During the excitement Bradburn's money was forgotten and he was sent to Central station without it. A charge of disorderly conduct was lodged against him, and he was released on a forfeit.

Bradburn, around the "street," is reported to come from Chicago, but the information given the police was to the effect that he lives in the East End.

BUSINESS IS SOUND

Legitimate Trade Has Not Been Affected by Wall Street Conditions.

IRON MILLS BEHIND ORDERS

Those at Pittsburg, so Stated, by Dun's Review — Reports From Nearly Every City Show Exceptional Volume of Transactions.

New York, May 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

A panic in Wall street does not mean that legitimate business has suddenly ceased to prosper, nor is the condition of mercantile trade and manufacture adversely affected by a violent change in prices of securities. Throughout the entire country fundamental conditions were never so sound as at the present time, reports from nearly every city this week showing an exceptional volume of transactions and payments promptly met.

Mills Behind With Orders.

Production is not overtaking demand at the finished steel mills, and all Pittsburg plants are two months behind orders, while 90 days is the limit at many. Although the expected advance in bar iron did not appear, the tone continues firm and orders are liberal. Billets remain at the top point for prompt delivery, but reasonable terms are available on forward contracts. In structural, shapes and railway equipment there is all the business in sight that makers desire, and no effort is made to secure additional orders. Less urgency is recorded in pig iron markets, but buyers do not find terms more satisfactory, and, in fact, forge and foundry iron is rather more firmly held. Although the total number of furnaces in blast on May 1 was 40 smaller than on Feb. 1, 1900, the Iron Age estimates the weekly capacity at 301,125 tons, which exceeds all previous highwater marks. The activity of steel manufacturing is emphasized by the decrease of 34,279 tons in furnace stocks during April, despite the unparalleled production.

Less sensational events transpired in the cereal markets than in the preceding week, although quotations are slow to recede. Corn eased off a few cents, but is still about 10 cents a bushel, or nearly 25 per cent above the quotation at the corresponding date in two preceding years. Western operators continue to entertain strong views, and appear little daunted by the larger receipts attracted to interior cities by the unusually profitable prices offered. For the week arrivals aggregated 3,247,094 bushels, against 2,196,202 last year. Foreign purchasers have been driven out of the domestic markets by the high quotations, and Atlantic exports for the week have been 1,211,244 bushels, compared with 3,709,880 a year ago.

Cotton and Wool.

Recovery in the price of cotton was only temporary, and heavy liquidation of options was accompanied by a fall in spot middling uplands to the lowest figure recorded this year. Even at a loss of $9 a bale, compared with the quotation prevailing a year ago, there is little disposition to secure raw material, either by domestic or foreign spinners. As the end of the crop year approaches there is no sign of the famine predicted by many experts earlier in the season, and with most monotonous regularity port receipts continue two or three times as large as in the same week last year. With a large yield probable this year, and unsatisfactory conditions at the mills, there is no inducement to hold stocks. The situation is similar regarding wool and woolsens. Raw material is abundant, and a large clip probable, while manufacturers have only a light demand for goods.

Failures for the week numbered 187 in the United States, against 192 last year, and 26 in Canada, against 15 last year.

MARKET MORE CALM.

PROGRESS MADE IN RE-ESTABLISHING CONFIDENCE.

Natural Rebound in Prices—Gains in Some Stocks—Some Features of Market Friday.

New York May 11.—Rapid progress was made in re-establishing confidence in Wall street Friday, and there was a natural rebound in prices. That is to say, the fact of the rebound was very natural after the extent of the declines of Thursday, but the range of the recovery was surprising. Large progress was made toward wiping out the net losses which remained Thursday night after the recovery had already set in on the exchange. In a number of stocks which were not acutely affected Thursday, Friday's price rose above Wednesday's closing level, and in Missouri Pacific Thursday's net loss was recovered, with three points to spare, the extreme advance reaching 15 points. There was a good deal of trepidation still evident Friday morning, owing to the vague dread that there might be Stock Exchange houses which would be unable to meet their obligations after Thursday's drastic experience. The market was therefore unsettled and feverish, even after the strong opening, but when the official announcement was made that the clearing sheets of all the members of the Stock Exchange had gone through the Stock Exchange clearing house perfectly and that all their checks had been honored, a feeling of relief was manifested and steadily grew throughout the day. During the latter part of the day there was a resumption of what looked like a speculative movement for the rise led by Union Pacific. The buoyancy of this stock and the accompanying strength of the southwestern was based upon rumors and assumptions of the benefits to accrue to Union Pacific from a change in control of Northern Pacific, which was still stoutly claimed by the Union Pacific party. Undoubtedly there were very many speculative losers of great resources in the collapse of Thursday who retained their nerve and determination and who sat about to recoup themselves by new speculation in the market. Other buyers were those who had gotten out early in Thursday's slump and who still saw a profit in getting back at the prices ruling Friday. The bargain hunters were also on hand in some force, and there were many cash transactions, both in bonds and stocks, representing their purchases. This outcome of affairs was pretty well assured when the news was learned Friday morning of the settlement effected with the shorts in Northern Pacific on the basis of $150 per share. This removed the overshadowing fear from the market and the quotations for Northern Pacific on the tape at 150 still further allayed the apprehension. The stock sold at 200 for cash afterwards but the progress of the settlement with the shorts at the offices of the conflicting interests in Northern Pacific prevented any further disturbance on that ground. The measures taken by the banks which placed heavy loans on the market Thursday and their decision not to call the loans Friday completed the tranquilizing influences.

Restraining Order by a Judge.

The issuance of a conditional restraining order by a member of the supreme court of the state, hinging on the reaching of an agreement between the warring Northern Pacific factions, was a novelty, but it served the purpose. It furnished the leaders of the wrangling elements an excuse they were very glad to have to get together and patch up a truce.

The market closed strong at the top with a feeling of relief over Saturday's holiday. The gain extended in Union Pacific to 22, St. Paul and Lackawanna 17½, Consolidated Gas 16, Burlington and Amalgamated Copper 12½, International Power 11½, Baltimore and Ohio 11, St. Louis Southwestern preferred 10½, Sugar, Delaware and Hudson and General Electric 10, and representatives of practically all the important groups from 5 to 10.

Bonds, which were weaker Thursday, showed some wide recoveries, but others were weak. Total sales, par value, $5,930,000.

U. S. new 4s declined ¼ per cent on the last call.

So far as actual control of the Northern Pacific is concerned, the impression was gaining ground last night that it will be the party with the most money that will acquire it. Many of the daily papers and some of the financial papers Friday expressed the belief that control of the Northern Pacific was still vested in the Morgan-Hill party. On the other hand, one of the leading daily papers of the city and some of the financial organs of the street still express the opinion that the Harriman party is in control. One thing seemed settled last night, and that was that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. did not yet admit defeat. Late in the day Mr. Otto H. Kuhn, of the firm, did not hesitate to say: "We believe we have control."

J. J. Hill, on the other hand, however, was quite as decisive in reiterating his previous statements that "the control has not changed."

As a matter of fact, it is said there seems to be no reason for doubting that both interests have control so far as stock in their possession, plus contracts for delivery, are concerned. But which interest will eventually be able to vote a control in the form of actual certificates remains to be seen, and will, it was believed last night, not be definitely known until the annual meeting in the fall.

RETURNED WITH A GUN.

Settlement Made by Brokers at Pittsburg Didn't Suit a Speculator.

Pittsburg, May 11.—In the office of A. B. Baxter & Co., at No. 225 Fourth avenue, William Bradburn, who has been in Pittsburg for several days, tried to collect what he said was due him from Baxter & Co. at the point of a double-barrel shotgun, which he brought into the office with him.

There was a wind rush for the door, which resulted in the breaking of glass and the overturning of furniture. Bradburn was seized by W. W. Vensel, one of the partners in the firm, before he had time to pull the trigger of the gun, and was held until the officers arrived and took him into custody.

The trouble arose over the settlement of some trades which Bradburn had made during the dizzy flight of the stock market Thursday. His trades had been made through George Newport, an East End broker, who had turned the business over to Baxter & Co. to handle. Bradburn's profits, at the close of the market Thursday, it is alleged by him, amounted to about $2,000, and he wanted to close the trades and get his money out. He called at the office shortly before noon Friday. According to the statement of the members of the firm, the matter was satisfactorily adjusted, and arrangements were made to pay over the money. Bradburn, it seems, did not agree with this view of the affair, and made his own arrangements to obtain the cash.

Bradburn alleged that Newport owed him $9,000 by reason of his speculation, and that a note for $1,200 was due him from Newport. Baxter & Co. had no dealings with Bradburn except through Newport, and he was not in the office at the time of Bradburn's first visit.

Bradburn, it is alleged, came into the office and leveled the shotgun at Vensel and Newport, who were standing at a desk busy figuring. Vensel sprang toward the man with the gun and wrested it from his grasp, and Newport dodged in order to get out of the way if the gun should go off. During the excitement Bradburn's money was forgotten and he was sent to Central station without it. A charge of disorderly conduct was lodged against him, and he was released on a forfeit.

Bradburn, around the "street," is reported to come from Chicago, but the information given the police was to the effect that he lives in the East End.

Detroit Director's Obnoxious Order Led to an Exciting Street Battle.

INTERFERED WITH FREE SPEECH

Would Not Allow a Single Tax Advocate to Talk in the Street—Crowd Resented It—Some Citizens and Officers Were Injured.

Detroit, Mich., May 11.—Fully 10,000 men and boys ran riot in the main streets of this city for more than three hours and a continual running fight with police, both mounted and on foot, made an exciting night in the heart of the city last night. The net result so far as known is 12 citizens and five policemen injured. Mike Waldin and Louis Caplin had their heads crushed by being trampled on by horses ridden by the mounted police in a charge on the crowd.

The officers injured are: James Tuomey, scalp cut by brick; Henry Scott, hit on head with cobble stone; Thomas Murphy, cheek cut open with brick; George Moore, badly cut about head by brick and taken home in an ambulance; Barney Roonan, hit with a brick.

Police Director's Obnoxious Order.

The beginning of the riot was Thursday night, when Director of the Police Frank T. Andrews, who recently superseded the old police board through the passage of the ripper bill by the legislature, issued an order to the police to allow no one to stand about the wagon of one "Tom Bawden," a local single tax exhorter, who had incurred the ill will of the police director by the extraordinary nature of his remarks on so-called wealthy "tax dodgers."

When Bawden began his exhortation a crowd quickly gathered. Director Andrews supervised the work of the police in keeping the people moving. The crowd good-naturedly booed the police and no violence was done.

Last night, however, the temper of the crowd changed when it was announced that Director Andrews had called on reserve officers to assist in keeping the campus martius clear. The single tax exhorter came with his wagon and found the campus jammed with people. The police refused to allow him to locate at any particular point and he drove from one street to another, the crowd following. The mob frequently blocked traffic and the police attempted to disperse them. It was not long before stones began to fly through the air and a general mixup followed, in which the foot police used their clubs and the mounted men charged. The officers fired their guns in the air and the mob returned the fusillade with sticks and cobblestones. At one time, when the mob had gathered about the central police station, at Fort and Randolph streets, bricks were thrown through windows.

Trampled Upon by Horses.

In a charge made by the mounted police at this point Mike Waldin was knocked down and three horses trampled over him, cutting his head so badly that he was taken to the Emergency hospital. Officer George Moore was hit with a stone in this charge, and his cheek was laid open. He was taken to his home in an ambulance. The other officers were not seriously hurt.

At one stage of the riot a section of hose was secured by order of the police director and the stream turned on the crowd, but the hose was cut and the man who wielded the nozzle was driven into a saloon and pounded over the head with an iron cuspidor. Mayor Maybury was down town watching the crowd and at one time made a speech to the people from the postoffice steps, cautioning them to do no violence, but stated that he was not in sympathy with the order of Police Director Andrews denying free speech on the public streets.

STRIKE AT EXPOSITION.

Carpenters and Joiners Went Out. Reported Settlement.

Buffalo, May 11.—Last evening 650 carpenters and joiners employed at the exposition grounds went on strike. Unless the men's demands are granted by the exposition company the walking delegates threatened to call out every man employed at the exposition grounds today.

The men do not ask for higher wages. The trouble is over what the carpenters call "unfair" lumber, which, as interpreted by the union men, means material furnished by mills employing non-union men.

About 11:30 o'clock last night Director of Works Carlton made the following brief statement:

"All of the men who struck this afternoon will be back at work as usual tomorrow morning."

Mr. Carlton would not say whether he had held a conference with the men or not, but he was very emphatic in stating that the men would return to work and that there would be no delay.

Bishop Ready to Sell Cathedral.

Pittsburg, May 11.—Bishop Richard Phelan, of the Catholic diocese of Pittsburg, through his attorney, C. D. Gillespie, yesterday applied to common pleas court No. 1 for permission to sell St. Paul's cathedral and its connecting property to H. C. Frick for $1,300,000. Upon motion of Attorney Gillespie the court directed that a citation be issued to the members of the congregation to show cause why the prayer should not be granted.

YOUNG M'CORMICK DEAD.

Body of Boy Who Disappeared From Home Found Floating In a Creek.

New York, May 11.—The body of 12-year-old Willie McCormick, who disappeared from his home at Highbridge about six weeks ago, was found floating on the surface of Cromwells creek, not far from the McCormick home. The father and sister of the boy identified the body by the clothing.

Police Captain Titus, in an interview last night, said:

"At the present time I am of the opinion the boy's death was the result of an accident. There were no marks of violence on the body, as probably would have been the case had the lad met with foul play. Then, too, if any one had thrown the body into the creek, he would have first weighted it so that it would have remained below the surface of the water. My theory is that the boy had been playing along the dock and fell into the water and there was no one there to save him or give an alarm. The torn condition of one of the pockets of the boy's coat would indicate that the garment had caught on something, snag or the like, under the water, holding the body down, thus causing it to escape observation. The masses of sea weeds and grasses in the creek would also tend to keep the body from coming to the surface."

The parents of the boy and Father Mullin, of the church of the Sacred Heart, of Highbridge, who has taken an active interest in the case, said last night they had abandoned the idea of foul play and that they believe the boy had been accidentally drowned.

RECOMMENDED FOR BISHOP.

Three Clergymen Suggested for the Head of the New Diocese.

Pittsburg, May 11.—Announcement is expected from Rome very shortly of the erection of the new diocese of Altoona of the Roman Catholic church. The names of three clergymen have been forwarded to Rome, and one of them is likely to be named bishop. The names have been submitted in the following order: First, on the nomination of Bishop Richard Phelan, of the Pittsburg diocese, the Very Rev. Francis L. Tobin, pastor of St. Mary's, Forty-sixth street, Pittsburg; second, on the nomination of Bishop John W. Shannon, of Harrisburg, the Very Rev. P. J. Garvey, rector of the Theological Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo, Overbrook; third, on the nomination of Bishop Michael John Hoban, of Scranton, the Right Rev. Mgr. Eugene A. Garvey, rector of St. John's, Pittston.

A LITTLE CHILD DROWNED.

Cloudburst Caused Overflows Near Wheeling.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 11.—A cloudburst east of Wheeling last night caused the overflowing of Peters, Chapels and Woods runs, tributaries of Wheeling creek. At Triadelphia the Baltimore and Ohio tracks were covered with water for several hours and trains were held up, including two passenger trains.

At Greggsville a little child, name unknown, is said to have been washed away and drowned. Between Greggsville and Leatherwood, a suburb, the wall of water came down about 10 feet in height, taking bridges, outhouses and logs. It was feared several lives were lost, but nothing definite could be learned last night.

In Wheeling the rainfall was about 1.1 inches in 40 minutes.

POLITICAL MATTERS.

Hon. Curtis McBride, of Richland, is one of the Democratic old guard of the state, but he is not in line with the faddists who have made shipwreck of the Democratic faith in Ohio and the nation. 'He was in Columbus the other day, having just returned from a pleasant sight-seeing tour of the south, and talked interestingly of Ohio politics. Speaking of the party in Ohio in a general way, he said: "When the Democrats of Ohio get back to the old landmarks of the fathers they will win once in awhile, but so long as they incorporate all the Populistic notions that ever emanated from the brains of the political mountebanks in their platforms, they will amount to nothing. We are likely to find them in Ohio this fall favoring initiative and referendum, municipal ownership, single tax, and all of the Populistic foolishness. The result can be discounted now, if that condition of affairs obtains. They took up with these Populistic theories and the consequence was the Democratic party has been swallowed alive by the Populists. They filled their platform with all sorts of rot about the laboring classes last fall, and when election day came the workingmen flocked to the polls and voted the Republican ticket, because they had plenty of work under the Republican administration and got good money for it. It makes me weary." The mention of Frank S. Monnett for attorney general made him smile.

The appearance of the name of Hon. John A. McDowell as one of the delegates to the Democratic state convention from Holmes county, recalls the fact that the ex-congressman is once more in the good graces of his party. Last summer, angered at his defeat for a third term, by "Oom Pop" Cassingham, he courted the Republican nomination for congress in his district. It was an overwhelmingly Democratic district, but McDowell was willing to take a chance at busting up the Cassingham ring by making the race on the Republican ticket. The friends of Cassingham got onto the scheme, and after considerable telegraphing and long-distance telephoning, McDowell was pulled off.—State Journal.

Within a few days Hon. William M. Jenkins, brother of John K. Jenkins, of Alliance, will be formally inaugurated as governor of Oklahoma territory, having been appointed to the position by President McKinley. When Governor-elect Jenkins returned to Oklahoma from the national capital he was given a grand ovation by the citizens of Guthrie, the capital of the territory, a large delegation having met him at Santa Fe station. He was given a rousing welcome, and in the exercises attending the reception great honor was done him as the retiring secretary and the governor-to-be.

The impression is growing among those on the inside of Democratic state politics that John R. McLean is backing John L. Zimmerman in the contest for governor. Pilgrimages to the office of Zimmerman in Springfield are now the order of the day, and the rush has begun in that direction, the most of the callers being the close political friends of McLean.

Dizziness

Is a very common consequence of indigestion and torpid liver. Sometimes there are spots before the eyes and hot flashes. At other times a sensation as of vertigo occurs, at once suffocating and blinding. It is a waste of time to attempt to cure this condition by ordinary means or medicines. The stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition must be restored to healthy activity, the blood must be purified, the liver cleansed and strengthened, before a cure can be hoped for. This is the work done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a medicine specially beneficial in diseases of the stomach, blood and liver. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, cleanses the clogged liver, and promotes the health of every organ of the body.

"My wife was greatly troubled with indigestion, torpid liver, dizziness, and also irregular periods," writes Mr. W. A. Preston, of Shuqualak, Kosciusko Co., Miss. "We tried many different remedies, but none of them gave perfect relief until we were induced by a lady to try your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' Favorite Prescription, and 'Pleasant Pellets.' These medicines did more good than anything we ever tried for those complaints. We have used four bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one of 'Favorite Prescription,' and two vials of your 'Pellets.' These medicines have done the work we desired, and I do heartily recommend them to all similar sufferers."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the "Discovery."

When Governor-elect Jenkins returned to Oklahoma from the national capital he was given a grand ovation by the citizens of Guthrie, the capital of the territory, a large delegation having met him at Santa Fe station. He was given a rousing welcome, and in the exercises attending the reception great honor was done him as the retiring secretary and the governor-to-be.

The impression is growing among those on the inside of Democratic state politics that John R. McLean is backing John L. Zimmerman in the contest for governor. Pilgrimages to the office of Zimmerman in Springfield are now the order of the day, and the rush has begun in that direction, the most of the callers being the close political friends of McLean.

Dizziness

Is a very common consequence of indigestion and torpid liver. Sometimes there are spots before the eyes and hot flashes. At other times a sensation as of vertigo occurs, at once suffocating and blinding. It is a waste of time to attempt to cure this condition by ordinary means or medicines. The stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition must be restored to healthy activity, the blood must be purified, the liver cleansed and strengthened, before a cure can be hoped for. This is the work done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a medicine specially beneficial in diseases of the stomach, blood and liver. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, cleanses the clogged liver, and promotes the health of every organ of the body.

"My wife was greatly troubled with indigestion, torpid liver, dizziness, and also irregular periods," writes Mr. W. A. Preston, of Shuqualak, Noxubee Co., Miss. "We tried many different remedies, but none of them gave perfect relief until we were induced by a lady to try your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' 'Favorite Prescription,' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' These medicines did more good than anything we ever tried for those complaints. We have used four bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one of 'Favorite Prescription,' and two vials of your 'Pellets.' These medicines have done the work we desired, and I do heartily recommend them to all similar sufferers."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the "Discovery."

A RIOT WITH POLICE

Detroit Director's Obnoxious Order Led to an Exciting Street Battle.

INTERFERED WITH FREE SPEECH

Would Not Allow a Single Tax Advocate to Talk in the Street—Crowd Resented It—Some Citizens and Officers Were Injured.

Detroit, Mich., May 11.—Fully 10,000 men and boys ran riot in the main streets of this city for more than three hours and a continual running fight with police, both mounted and on foot, made an exciting night in the heart of the city last night. The net result so far as known is 12 citizens and five policemen injured. Mike Waldin and Louis Caplin had their heads crushed by being trampled on by horses ridden by the mounted police in a charge on the crowd.

The officers injured are: James Tuomey, scalp cut by brick; Henry Scott, hit on head with cobble stone; Thomas Murphy, cheek cut open with brick; George Moore, badly cut about head by brick and taken home in an ambulance; Barney Roonan, hit with a brick.

Police Director's Obnoxious Order.

The beginning of the riot was Thursday night, when Director of the Police Frank T. Andrews, who recently superseded the old police board through the passage of the ripper bill by the legislature, issued an order to the police to allow no one to stand about the wagon of one "Tom Bowden," a local single tax exhorter, who had incurred the ill will of the police director by the extraordinary nature of his remarks on so-called wealthy "tax dodgers."

When Bowden began his exhortation a crowd quickly gathered. Director Andrews supervised the work of the police in keeping the people moving. The crowd good-naturedly hooted the police and no violence was done.

Last night, however, the temper of the crowd changed when it was announced that Director Andrews had called on reserve officers to assist in keeping the campus martius clear. The single tax exhorter came with his wagon and found the campus jammed with people. The police refused to allow him to locate at any particular point and he drove from one street to another, the crowd following. The mob frequently blocked traffic and the police attempted to disperse them. It was not long before stones began to fly through the air and a general mixup followed, in which the foot police used their clubs and the mounted men charged. The officers fired their guns in the air and the mob returned the fusillade with sticks and cobblestones. At one time, when the mob had gathered about the central police station, at Fort and Randolph streets, bricks were thrown through windows.

Trampled Upon by Horses.

In a charge made by the mounted police at this point Mike Waldin was knocked down and three horses trampled over him, cutting his head so badly that he was taken to the Emergency hospital. Officer George Moore was hit with a stone in this charge, and his cheek was laid open. He was taken to his home in an ambulance. The other officers were not seriously hurt.

At one stage of the riot a section of hose was secured by order of the police director and the stream turned on the crowd, but the hose was cut and the man who wielded the nozzle was driven into a saloon and pounded over the head with an iron cuspidor. Mayor Maybury was down town watching the crowd and at one time made a speech to the people from the postoffice steps, cautioning them to do no violence, but stated that he was not in sympathy with the order of Police Director Andrews denying free speech on the public streets.

STRIKE AT EXPOSITION.

Carpenters and Joiners Went Out. Reported Settlement.

Buffalo, May 11.—Last evening 650 carpenters and joiners employed at the exposition grounds went on strike. Unless the men's demands are granted by the exposition company the walking delegates threatened to call out every man employed at the exposition grounds today.

The men do not ask for higher wages. The trouble is over what the carpenters call "unfair" lumber, which, as interpreted by the union men, means material furnished by mills employing non-union men.

About 11:30 o'clock last night Director of Works Carlton made the following brief statement:

"All of the men who struck this afternoon will be back at work as usual tomorrow morning."

Mr. Carlton would not say whether he had held a conference with the men or not, but he was very emphatic in stating that the men would return to work and that there would be no delay.

Bishop Ready to Sell Cathedral.

Pittsburg, May 11.—Bishop Richard Phelan, of the Catholic diocese of Pittsburg, through his attorney, C. D. Gillespie, yesterday applied to common pleas court No. 1 for permission to sell St. Paul's cathedral and its connecting property to H. C. Frick for $1,300,000. Upon motion of Attorney Gillespie the court directed that a citation be issued to the members of the congregation to show cause why the prayer should not be granted.

YOUNG MCCORMICK DEAD.

Body of Boy Who Disappeared From Home Found Floating In a Creek.

New York, May 11.—The body of 12-year-old Willie McCormick, who disappeared from his home at Highbridge about six weeks ago, was found floating on the surface of Cromwell's creek, not far from the McCormick home. The father and sister of the boy identified the body by the clothing.

Police Captain Titus, in an interview last night, said:

"At the present time I am of the opinion the boy's death was the result of an accident. There were no marks of violence on the body, as probably would have been the case had the lad met with foul play. Then, too, if any one had thrown the body into the creek, he would have first weighted it so that it would have remained below the surface of the water. My theory is that the boy had been playing along the dock and fell into the water and there was no one there to save him or give an alarm. The torn condition of one of the pockets of the boy's coat would indicate that the garment had caught on something, snag or the like, under the water, holding the body down, thus causing it to escape observation. The masses of sea weeds and grasses in the creek would also tend to keep the body from coming to the surface."

The parents of the boy and Father Mullin, of the church of the Sacred Heart, of Highbridge, who has taken an active interest in the case, said last night they had abandoned the idea of foul play and that they believe the boy had been accidentally drowned.

RECOMMENDED FOR BISHOP.

Three Clergymen Suggested for the Head of the New Diocese.

Pittsburg, May 11.—Announcement is expected from Rome very shortly of the erection of the new diocese of Altoona of the Roman Catholic church. The names of three clergymen have been forwarded to Rome, and one of them is likely to be named bishop. The names have been submitted in the following order: First, on the nomination of Bishop Richard Phelan, of the Pittsburg diocese, the Very Rev. Francis L. Tobin, pastor of St. Mary's, Forty-sixth street, Pittsburg; second, on the nomination of Bishop John W. Shannon, of Harrisburg, the Very Rev. P. J. Garvey, rector of the Theological Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo, Overbrook; third, on the nomination of Bishop Michael John Hoban, of Scranton, the Right Rev. Mgr. Eugene A. Garvey, rector of St. John's, Pittston.

A LITTLE CHILD DROWNED.

Cloudburst Caused Overflows Near Wheeling.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 11.—A cloudburst east of Wheeling last night caused the overflowing of Peters, Chapels and Woods runs, tributaries of Wheeling creek. At Triadelphia the Baltimore and Ohio tracks were covered with water for several hours and trains were held up, including two passenger trains.

At Greggsville a little child, name unknown, is said to have been washed away and drowned. Between Greggsville and Leatherwood, a suburb, the wall of water came down about 10 feet in height, taking bridges, outhouses and logs. It was feared several lives were lost, but nothing definite could be learned last night.

In Wheeling the rainfall was about 1.1 inches in 40 minutes.

POLITICAL MATTERS.

Hon. Curtis McBride, of Richland, is one of the Democratic old guard of the state, but he is not in line with the faddists who have made shipwreck of the Democratic faith in Ohio and the nation. He was in Columbus the other day, having just returned from a pleasant sight-seeing tour of the south, and talked interestingly of Ohio politics. Speaking of the party in Ohio in a general way, he said: "When the Democrats of Ohio get back to the old landmarks of the fathers they will win once in awhile, but so long as they incorporate all the Populistic notions that ever emanated from the brains of the political mountebanks in their platforms, they will amount to nothing. We are likely to find them in Ohio this fall favoring initiative and referendum, municipal ownership, single tax, and all of the Populistic foolishness. The result can be discounted now, if that condition of affairs obtains. They took up with these Populistic theories and the consequence was the Democratic party has been swallowed alive by the Populists. They filled their platform with all sorts of rot about the laboring classes last fall, and when election day came the workingmen flocked to the polls and voted the Republican ticket, because they had plenty of work under the Republican administration and got good money for it. It makes me weary." The mention of Frank S. Monnett for attorney general made him smile.

The appearance of the name of Hon. John A. McDowell as one of the delegates to the Democratic state convention from Holmes county, recalls the fact that the ex-congressman is once more in the good graces of his party. Last summer, angered at his defeat for a third term, by "Oom Pop" Cassingham, he courted the Republican nomination for congress in his district. It was an overwhelmingly Democratic district, but McDowell was willing to take a chance at busting up the Cassingham ring by making the race on the Republican ticket. The friends of Cassingham got onto the scheme, and after considerable telegraphing and long-distance telephoning, McDowell was pulled off.—State Journal.

Within a few days Hon. William M. Jenkins, brother of John K. Jenkins, of Alliance, will be formally inaugurated as governor of Oklahoma territory, having been appointed to the position by President McKinley. When Governor-elect Jenkins returned to Oklahoma from the national capital he was given a grand ovation by the citizens of Guthrie, the capital of the territory, a large delegation having met him at Santa Fe station. He was given a rousing welcome, and in the exercises attending the reception great honor was done him as the retiring secretary and the governor-to-be.

Pilgrimages to the office of Zimmerman in Springfield are now the order of the day, and the rush has begun in that direction, the most of the callers being the close political friends of McLean.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

A New West Ender.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Skelton, West End, a son.

At Columbian Park.—The Crocker City and Emeralds base ball teams are playing at Columbian park. The game was called at 4 o'clock.

Challenged the Delmonico.—The Phoenix base ball team has challenged the Delmonico club for a game next week. Arrangements are being made for the contest and it promises to be a warm one.

Exciting Runaway.—A team and buggy belonging in Salem ran off on Second street yesterday afternoon, the horses taking fright at the street railway repair car, and running into a telegraph pole, badly demolishing the vehicle.

Prepared for Coon Hunting.—Roy Rinehart has purchased a fine coon dog. It was received from Marietta Thursday afternoon. Mr. Rinehart, William Zange and Jesse Evans will spend the night in West Virginia coon hunting.

Goes to the Hospital.—Hattie Woodburn, who was injured several years ago by falling into a coal hole on Walnut street, was this morning taken to Pittsburg by her brother, John Woodburn. She will enter a hospital at that place.

City Growing Bigger.—The population of the city increased a little yesterday, caused by three new families moving to town. They were John R. Gray, from Indiana, Mrs. J. Rutledge, from East Palestine and Claude Massey from Bridgeport.

Justice Rose Made a Hit.—Justice J. Rose, local commander of the G. A. R., made the hit of the encampment at Bellefontaine by his happy speech nominating E. F. Taggart, of Akron, for department commander. He also made an excellent address at the big camp fire.

New Firm.—The Diamond Hardware company has changed hands. M. L. Otterman, of Youngstown, and H. F. Fowler, of Warren, are the new proprietors. Mr. Otterman has been many years in the business, and the new firm gives promise of being thoroughly up-to-date. They will soon have interesting announcements to make in the advertising columns.

Funeral of Mrs. Dickey.—The funeral of Mrs. Catharine Dickey took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Baum, 203 Seventh street. Dr. Clark Crawford officiated and interment was made in Riverview cemetery. Mrs. Dickey had between 50 and 60 grandchildren, eight of whom acted as pallbearers.

Trespass Case.—Justice J. N. Rose this morning was called on to act in a case filed in his court. Herman Zeiner, an employe of the American Clay Manufacturing company at Walker's, entered suit against Steve Smurder and a man named Dragon, charging them with unlawful trespass on the grounds of the above company. The case is being heard this afternoon. All men involved are Slavs.

ORDER IN EFFECT.

Railroad Employees Warned They Must Not Use Tobacco.

The first of the month the Pennsylvania company issued an order that the use of tobacco by employes while on duty and others while around their property must be discontinued. The rule was not observed at the freight station and yesterday an officer of the company was in the city and informed the employes and draymen personally that they must not use tobacco while on their ground.

HORSE WHIPS

And Hot Water Used By Alliance Woman, Who Forced Telephone Men to Quit.

The work of erecting poles at Alliance by the Independent Telephone company was brought to an abrupt end yesterday, when two incensed women with horsewhips and scalding water pounced down on the workmen, who were digging post holes and forced them to quit.

Attorneys from Canton are now attempting to adjust the difficulty.

Challenged the Delmonico.—The Phoenix base ball team has challenged the Delmonico club for a game next week. Arrangements are being made for the contest and it promises to be a warm one.

Exciting Runaway.—A team and buggy belonging in Salem ran off on Second street yesterday afternoon, the horses taking fright at the street railway repair car, and running into a telegraph pole, badly demolishing the vehicle.

Prepared for Coon Hunting.—Roy Rinehart has purchased a fine coon dog. It was received from Marietta Thursday afternoon. Mr. Rinehart, William Zange and Jesse Evans will spend the night in West Virginia coon hunting.

Goes to the Hospital.—Hattie Woodburn, who was injured several years ago by falling into a coal hole on Walnut street, was this morning taken to Pittsburg by her brother, John Woodburn. She will enter a hospital at that place.

City Growing Bigger.—The population of the city increased a little yesterday, caused by three new families moving to town. They were John R. Gray, from Indiana, Mrs. J. Rutledge, from East Palestine and Claude Massey from Bridgeport.

Justice Rose Made a Hit.—Justice J. Rose, local commander of the G. A. R., made the hit of the encampment at Bellefontaine by his happy speech nominating E. F. Taggart, of Akron, for department commander. He also made an excellent address at the big camp fire.

New Firm.—The Diamond Hardware company has changed hands. M. L. Otterman, of Youngstown, and H. F. Fowler, of Warren, are the new proprietors. Mr. Otterman has been many years in the business, and the new firm gives promise of being thoroughly up-to-date. They will soon have interesting announcements to make in the advertising columns.

Funeral of Mrs. Dickey.—The funeral of Mrs. Catharine Dickey took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Baum, 203 Seventh street. Dr. Clark Crawford officiated and interment was made in Riverview cemetery. Mrs. Dickey had between 50 and 60 grandchildren, eight of whom acted as pallbearers.

Trespass Case.—Justice J. N. Rose this morning was called on to act in a case filed in his court. Herman Zeiner, an employe of the American Clay Manufacturing company at Walker's, entered suit against Steve Smurder and a man named Dragon, charging them with unlawful trespass on the grounds of the above company. The case is being heard this afternoon. All men involved are Slavs.

ORDER IN EFFECT.

Railroad Employes Warned They Must Not Use Tobacco.

The first of the month the Pennsylvania company issued an order that the use of tobacco by employes while on duty and others while around their property must be discontinued. The rule was not observed at the freight station and yesterday an officer of the company was in the city and informed the employes and draymen personally that they must not use tobacco while on their ground.

HORSE WHIPS

And Hot Water Used By Alliance Woman, Who Forced Telephone Men to Quit.

The work of erecting poles at Alliance by the Independent Telephone company was brought to an abrupt end yesterday, when two incensed women with horsewhips and scalding water pounced down on the workmen, who were digging post holes and forced them to quit.

Attorneys from Canton are now attempting to adjust the difficulty.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

17TH-YEAR. NO. 283.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, MAY 11, 1901.

TWO CENTS

PREPARED TO BEGIN WORK FOR THE CITY'S WELFARE

New Board of Trade Organized at an Enthusiastic Mass Meeting.

BUSINESS MEN AS OFFICERS

The Organization Started With an Encouraging List of Members.

SPEECHES HAD THE RIGHT RING

F. H. Croxall Was Elected President,
J. N. Hanley Vice President, G. Y.
Travis Secretary And D. M. Ogilvie
Treasurer.

From a numerical point of view the mass meeting held at the council chamber Friday evening for the purpose of reorganizing the city board of trade was perhaps not quite up to the expectations of the promoters of the movement. However, there were about 50 prominent and enterprising citizens present, the majority being business men, and a most enthusiastic session resulted.

The fact that the meeting was projected and carried out on only one day's notice was the cause of the rather small attendance; but the extreme interest manifested by those who were present more than made up for all other deficiencies.

Attorney G. Y. Travis called the meeting to order and made a brief but pointed address, stating the object of the session, and asked that a temporary organization be effected. On motion of City Clerk Hanley, Frank H. Croxall was made chairman and Mr. Travis secretary. Mr. Croxall made a neat speech, in which he heartily endorsed the project to revive the board of trade, and in closing asked for suggestions as to the best method of procedure.

D. A. Devine, who was a member of the former board, said he had given the matter much thought, and expressed the belief that nothing could be done of more benefit to the city. He stated his willingness to encourage the movement, but thought the board, when newly organized, should start off with a representation of capital inducement.

Chairman Croxall thought Mr. Travis should offer a suggestion, but that gentleman insisted that expressions be received from the different ones present before any definite action was taken.

Mr. Devine again took the floor and suggested that the new board be organized in the same manner as the former one. He thought it proper for the chairmen to appoint two business men or property owners from each ward in the city to serve on the board. Mr. Croxall demurred, explaining he considered that he was taking too much responsibility on himself in making the appointments as suggested by Mr. Devine.

A motion was made by Mr. Travis that an executive session be held for the election of officers. The motion carried. Harry Smith followed with a motion that a nominating committee of three be appointed to select officers for a permanent organization. Mr. Smith's motion met with instantaneous favor and was carried. Messrs. Steinfeld, Smith and Ferguson were appointed to serve on the committee, and those gentlemen retired to the city engineer's office, where a brief caucus was held. On returning to the council chamber, Mr. Steinfeld announced that the committee had selected F. H. Croxall as president; J. N. Hanley, vice president; G. Y. Travis, secretary, and D. M. Ogilvie treasurer. Mr. Steinfeld stated that the members of the nominating committee thought it advisable to select a board of directors and the names of the following gentlemen were submitted: Thompson Andrews, W. C. Davidson, J. W. Gipner, N. G. Ma-

crum, John W. Moore, Jr., and D. A. Devine.

On a motion by Joseph Betz the names of the officers and board of directors decided on by the nominating committee were ratified.

Harry Smith made a motion that a committee be appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws. Mr. Croxall expressed the opinion that the board of directors should perform the duties recommended by Mr. Smith. This was agreed to by Mr. Smith and a motion was made and carried to that effect.

Mr. Hanley expressed himself as believing it to be a wise move to appoint members to serve on the new board and that a membership fee of $1 be charged. The chairman stated that he believed better results would accrue by calling another meeting, when a possibly larger attendance would be present. He thought by properly agitating the proposed rejuvenation of the board and arousing further interest that a meeting of great proportions would result, and hence a better opportunity be afforded for starting the organization off with a substantial membership. Mr. Steinfeld thought Mr. Croxall's suggestion a good one, and also expressed the belief that it would be advisable to defer the action of organizing permanently until another meeting was called.

Elijah Hill gave his views on the question. He stated he considered it prudent to have the names of all present enrolled and that each should pledge himself by paying a membership fee. Mr. Hill thought by this means the board would be given a substantial foundation and that it would tend to encourage others to fall in line.

T. H. Burgess asked for an explanation as to the duties of the board of directors. He also desired information regarding Mr. Hill's suggestion to have those present at the meeting sign their names to a paper, and asked if by so doing they would become identified directly with the board of trade. The chairman explained that it was the intention to get as many signatures as was possible, and that each and everyone would be considered full-fledged members.

Councilman Nice gave an opinion that it would be discreet to defer further action until the by-laws and constitution were drawn up. Mr. Travis thought as Mr. Nice, and suggested that the board of directors get to work immediately and have that part of the business attended to in time for a meeting to be held some time next week.

Mr. Devine reiterated his former statement that he considered it in keeping with a business-like meeting to start off the organization with a subscription. Mr. Hill favored Mr. Devine's idea, and said that by following that suggestion all present at the meeting would be committing themselves to take active interest.

A standing vote was taken on the proposition with the result that the secretary was instructed to prepare a paper for the signatures of those who wished to become members of the board.

A suggestion which readily met with hearty favor was made by Mr. Hill. He thought the press should use all possible influence in booming the city's interests and induce propertyholders to get together and establish sites for the location of new industries which may be secured. He argued that if this was done it would greatly facilitate matters and assist in a great measure those whose duties it shall be to show up the city's advantages to any representative manufacturer seeking a location.

W. A. Calhoun, a member of the retiring board of trade, stated he had a copy of that body's constitution and by-laws, which he thought might be of benefit in drafting the new rules. The chairman requested Mr. Calhoun to furnish his copy to one of the board of directors, and that gentleman promised to do so.

The chairman asked the assemblage

DESPONDENCY LED TO DEATH BY POISON.

JAMES HEVERLY SWALLOWED
FOUR OUNCES OF LAUDANUM.

Lingered Many Hours—Wrote a Letter Saying He Had No Friends
And Would Die.

Despondency resulting from incessant indulgence in liquor, prompted James Heverly, aged 48 years, to take his own life. He died at his home on Second street at 10:30 o'clock this morning after three physicians had vainly endeavored during all of Friday night to save him.

Heverly swallowed the contents of a bottle containing four ounces of laudanum. At about 4:30 o'clock Friday evening he went to his home, where his wife was awaiting him, and on entering the door he produced the bottle containing the drug, telling Mrs. Heverly he proposed killing himself. He was under the influence of liquor and his wife, who had on several previous occasions heard him talk of suiciding, paid little attention to him. She says she did not have any idea the bottle contained poison.

Heverly went to the kitchen for a few moments and on coming into the room where his wife was sitting, he held the vial before her, showing about half of the contents gone. Then stepping back to the door he swallowed the remainder of the drug before her eyes. She made no effort to stop her husband, believing he was attempting to frighten her by feigning suicide.

After Heverly had taken the second dose he went to the kitchen door, where he smashed the bottle on a pile of brick. He then started back into the room where Mrs. Heverly was. As he entered he began to stagger. The woman attempted to get hold of his hand, but he pushed her aside, and then for the first time she noticed by the glassy stare in his eyes, that something was wrong. Two physicians were summoned and worked with the man for several hours. Another doctor was finally secured, but nothing could be done.

The body was taken to the rooms of Undertaker West, and later removed to the home of Mrs. Mary Laughbaugh, on Jackson street, a sister of the dead man. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Heverly has been employed as a laborer in this city for several years. It is said his family relations were not pleasant and that his wife had threatened to leave him, which is thought to have been the prompting of his rash act. He had been pre-meditating suicide for several days and wrote letters to a number of his relatives, stating his intention. Friday morning he mailed a letter to his brother, Charles Heverly, in this city, saying he was tired of living; that his friends had deserted him, and that he would be a corpse at midnight. The letter was received Friday evening and Charles went to his brother's home to find him in an unconscious state. He was then too far gone to revive, but owing to the extremely large dose of the poison his death did not result at the time he had calculated on being dead.

A wife and two children survive. Calvin, a son, resides in this city, and a daughter lives at Tyrone, Pa.

AN ENCLOSED PARK

WILL BE PROVIDED FOR PAT-
RONS OF BASE BALL.

Site Selected Near Chester Mill
Which W. E. Morrow Will Fix
Up Without Delay.

After many years spent in the difficult task of attempting to equip and maintain base ball clubs in East Liverpool without being able to collect admissions from patrons of the game, the city is to have an enclosed park, and that, too, without delay.

Wm. E. Morrow, of this city, yesterday closed the deal in which he leases a tract of land immediately west of the Southside mill. The gentleman will let the contract at once for building the fence and grand stand.

The enclosure will be 425x475 feet

THE CITY HAS A CHANCE TO GET A GLASS FACTORY

and a fence 10 feet in height will be erected around three sides. The fourth will be occupied by the grand stand with a seating capacity of about 1,500.

Mr. Morrow, with W. A. Calhoun and several others, were on the ground yesterday and spent some time in figuring out the arrangement of the park and fixing lines. Mr. Calhoun will lay out the diamond, thus assuring a perfect piece of work in this regard, as he has had a great deal of experience.

Mr. Morrow proposes to lose no time in letting the various contracts, and it is thought the work will be well under way by the middle of next week.

As soon as the grounds are in readiness the proprietor will book games with all the principal amateur teams in Pennsylvania and Ohio. Games will be arranged ahead with teams from cities sending picnic parties to Rock Springs, and the city is promised a series of contests such as the city has not witnessed in years.

BADLY INJURED.

ACCIDENT TO ROBERT HAWKINS
AT UNION POTTERY.

Broken Mold Thrown From a Window
Struck Him With Force.

Robert Hawkins, manager at the Union pottery, was hit on the head by a discarded plate mold yesterday afternoon and received an injury which will lay him up for some time.

Mr. Hawkins was outside of the building repairing a broken steam pipe when a boy threw the mold from an upstairs window. The object struck the manager with such force as to inflict an ugly wound, and one which may develop into serious complications.

He was assisted to the office of a physician, where the wound was dressed and the gentleman made as comfortable as possible. He is suffering considerable pain today.

The practice of throwing broken molds and ware from the windows has become so general that the wonder is there are not more accidents from this cause. Steps will be taken to stop the custom at the Union, at least.

PROJECT NOT DEAD.

STREET RAILWAY LINE TO SA-
LEM STILL POSSIBLE.

Men Interested Have Just Been on the Ground And Over the Proposed Route.

The proposed East Liverpool-Salem street railway project is not dead. U. J. Smith, of Cleveland, one of the holders of the franchise for the line, was here this week, accompanied by a capitalist presumably interested, and they drove over the proposed route to Salem.

It is stated that a practical surveyor will be here next week to make an inspection of the whole route. Although nothing could be learned from the Cleveland gentleman regarding his plans, the fact that a surveyor is to follow him indicates the possibility of important developments later.

Proposition Submitted to the Board of Trade Right Af- ter Organizing.

$25,000 STOCK MUST BE SOLD

Practical Men Said to Be at the
Head of the Projected
Enterprise.

WHAT IT IS PROPOSED TO DO

The Old Specialty Glass Company's
Site to Be Purchased And Utilized
A Factory Could Be Erected in a
Very Short Time.

At the conclusion of the organization of the new board of trade at city hall last evening, a proposition was submitted to that body which will probably result in the institution of a new glass house on the site of the old Specialty plant.

James N. Hanley, who was elected vice president of the board, submitted the proposition and immediate action on the matter was taken. Mr. Hanley stated that the company now formed had no connection with the Specialty concern, but was composed of practical and experienced men with the interests of the city at heart.

It is the desire of the new company to capitalize with $50,000 capital stock. No bonus is asked from the board of trade, and the only assistance asked is that the board promote the deal by aiding in the sale of stock. It is the intention to dispose of 250 shares at $100 each, thus making $25,000 with which the company proposes to buy the old site of the Specialty factory and also the machinery.

John Manor, formerly president of the Specialty company, was present at the meeting and he was called on to give an expression relative to the profits, etc., of the glass business. He gave positive assurance that there were no risks to run and that a handsome profit would be realized by the stockholders. Mr. Manor further stated that when once in full operation the plant would employ 150 men.

Attorney Travis considered the proposition a flattering one and urged the board of trade to take action without delay. He made a motion, which carried, asking that a committee of three—later changed to six—be appointed to confer with the projectors of the new concern. Messrs. Gipner, Ferguson, Devine, Hanley, Travis and Willis Davidson were chosen, and at the conclusion of the board of trade meeting, held a conference in Clerk Hanley's office with Mr. Manor and others of the new company.

While no definite decision has as yet been arrived at, there is little doubt but that the matter will be carried through to a successful climax. Much stock has already been sold and there is every reason to believe the balance will find ready purchasers. It is the belief of several interested in the project that work on rebuilding the old factory will commence before the summer is half over. Mr. Manor says if the stock is disposed of within the next few weeks, the plant will be ready for operation in about two months.

River Rose One Foot.

The river rose one foot during yesterday and last night, and the marks at the wharf this morning registered 8 feet and rising slowly. The Greenwood passed down last night, the Virginia passed up and the Lorena and Virginia will be down tonight. The Jim Brown passed up yesterday with a tow of empties.

Score 28 to 18.

The baseball game played at Rock Springs park yesterday afternoon between the Belmont club and the high school team was won by the Belmont boys by a score of 28 to 18.

It proposes to give free with every copy on some one day each week for at least five weeks, beginning with the week of May 20, a fine, artistic, ruby-tint autogravure, each mounted on handsome black mat. Prints like these are offered retail in art stores for one dollar each. The day each week on which these autogravures will be issued will not be announced, so to insure getting the complete series it will be necessary to order the Dispatch for five weeks, beginning May 20, as only regular subscribers will get them.

Artistic posters showing the Henner head in actual size and the other four subject reproduced in miniature are to be seen in various places and show the development of high art typography.

FELL ON HIS FACE

James Shooks Receives an Ugly Cut While Working at the Brickyard.

James Shooks, who is employed at the brickyard, sustained severe injuries as the result of a fall yesterday evening. Mr. Shooks, who is an aged man, tripped when at work and fell forward. His face struck a projecting piece of machinery, cutting a gash about four inches long on the cheekbone. The cut extended from the nose to the right temple and barely missed the eye.

Mr. Shooks was assisted to Dr. Calhoun's office, where the wound was dressed. It bled profusely and was spread to such an extent that it required four stitches to draw it together. In addition to this wound Mr. Shooks was considerably bruised and shaken up. He will not be able to resume work for some time.

NEW TO HIM.

Hammondsville Man Knocked Out in the First Round by Drink.

Morris Sheehan was given a ride in the patrol to the city proper last evening. He was found in a beastly state of intoxication at Searight's coal yard by Officer Spence, and was given lodging in the city prison.

When arraigned before Mayor Davidson this morning Sheehan stated that he had never indulged in drink before, and hoped his honor would be easy. He had just "come in to see the town" from his home at Hammondsville and had never tasted East Liverpool beer. The mayor let him off with $1 and costs.

The question is: How can both forces play ball at the same time and keep the street cars going? Anybody who can solve the problem will be given the gate receipts of the game.

Women Who Work

Nine out of ten women are afflicted with some of the common ailments known as female diseases. Among women whose employment requires them to stand on their feet or sit in the same position all day, not one in twenty-five escape these troubles. The average feminine constitution cannot, unaided, withstand the strain to which steady, trying work subjects them. The organs of womanhood are so delicate and finely adjusted that the inevitable result of constant standing, lifting, stooping or straining is displacement of vital parts. The disorder is usually slight at first, but soon develops into irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhœa or falling of the womb. Wine of Cardui is the right remedy for female weakness. As such it is offered to you. Wine of Cardui will not perform miracles, but it will, if taken as directed, insure painless and regular operation of the menstrual function. It will drive out every trace of leucorrhœa, and will so strengthen the ligaments that falling of the womb will be an impossibility. Don't you think it would pay you to try a medicine with such a record as that? You can get a $1 bottle of Wine of Cardui at any drug store and use it in the privacy of your home.

WINE OF CARDUI

Townsend, Ga., May 18, 1899.

I have been in bad health with falling of the womb, weak back, nervousness and heart palpitation. At monthly periods I would be in bed suffering great pain. I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Drought, and they have brought me wonderful relief. I have no pain, and not stop work at the monthly period.

WEST END WANTS CIRCUS GROUNDS

Its Residents Think the Old Park
Should Be Improved and
Fitted For Use.

NOW AN UNHEALTHY SPOT

They Say the Health Authorities
Should Interest Themselves And a
Small Fill Would Adapt the Grounds to the People's Needs.

East Liverpool residents will be entertained by at least three circuses this season, and the probabilities are they will all exhibit on the other side of the river.

This has caused people of the West End to again revive the subject of improvements to the old West End park.

It has been stated upon good authority that the contracts with South-side parties for the lot on which to show, reads conditionally, providing that in case the West End grounds are free from water the negotiations are off with them. However, this may be, it is safe to say the lot in this city will not be in condition to exhibit upon, and this is where the general public, especially the business people of streets leading to the grounds, have a kick.

They make the claim that in keeping up their taxes and the various obligations a business man is compelled to meet, they are certainly entitled to all the consideration the city can give in the matter of throwing business in their way. One of them said last evening:

"We are not selfish in this matter, but we do think the various outdoor exhibitions intended to draw patronage from this city should be held in town. It is a matter of no importance or concern of ours where they go so long as they stay here. Now, you may wonder how this could be brought about, but it is a very easy matter. If the council and those of the sanitary authorities under whose jurisdiction such matters come would do their duty, the West End grounds—the only spot in the city which is accessible to a railroad show—would be improved so that the water would never reach it.

"Almost all the sewage from the side of the hill above Jethro street empties into the lot, which, in addition to the back waters from the run, makes it extremely unhealthy. Two or three feet of a fill over the surface of the lot after it has been properly sewered would place it high and dry. If the health authorities would interest themselves, the improvement could be made in time to be of some benefit to the city this season."

Mr. Hays was formerly a member of the Nez Perces tribe and has been unusually successful in his work among his own people. He was educated by a missionary, Miss Sue McBeth, a sister of Mrs. Crawford.

WORK IS COMPLETED.

MAYOR DAVIDSON'S OFFICE GIVEN A NEW COAT OF PAPER.

His Honor And Chief Thompson Are Alleged to Have Been Color Blind
When They Selected the Paper.

The paperhangers who have been engaged at the city hall the past few days completed their work Thursday afternoon and the "waiting room" and mayor's office look cleaner than a pin.

Several of the officers have unflinchingly insinuated that Mayor Davidson and Chief Thompson are color blind—or were, at least, at the time they selected the new paper. Clerk Hanley greatly injured the feelings of the mayor and chief by making the remark that the "waiting room" walls look like "Joseph's coat of many colors."

Health Officer Burgess was asked to express an opinion on the judgment of those who selected the paper. The mayor and chief were present at the time, and of course, Mr. Burgess had to respect their feelings. Accordingly he stated that he thought the selection a very good one, and a moment later when his questioners did not observe him, the health officer turned to the others present and winked.

Mayor Davidson's office is gayly decorated with huge posies of a cherry red hue. The lower portion of the walls are covered with a coating of plain dark green paper, while the flowery designs are plastered over the upper portion of the walls and on the ceiling. The combination is certainly very striking, and his honor must be given credit for having good ideas of originality.

THE NEW BOARD OF TRADE.

Although the mass meeting held last evening for the purpose of reorganizing the board of trade was not as largely attended as such an important meeting should have been, it nevertheless attracted quite a number of prominent business men, who, acting in a business-like way, proceeded at once to form the nucleus of an organization, which can, if it will, play an important part in promoting the prosperity and general welfare of the city. The meeting was characterized by zeal and earnestness which augurs well for the growth and future usefulness of the body. One important business proposition has already been submitted to the consideration of the board, and by the time the organization is in working order others will doubtless be forthcoming.

The result of the meeting is highly satisfactory and most encouraging. East Liverpool again has a board of trade with men of standing and influence as its officers and a considerable membership already enrolled. It promises to be a working organization, and it must be if it is to accomplish anything. We believe thoroughly in the policy of advertising; so do the majority of business men. The mission of the board of trade should be to advertise East Liverpool and its advantages. If a business house wants business, it sends its advertisements and its agents out to get it. A city must do likewise. The board of trade, with a membership of several hundred, which number should easily be enrolled in a very short time, will have that number of agents on the lookout for the city's interests, and with the hearty cooperation and earnest backing of the press, which it has already, ought to be able to advertise the town in a manner which will produce lasting benefits.

East Liverpool is a live city; no citizen and no person acquainted with the town will dispute this. That it has been without an active and vigilant board of trade for so long is surprising, since every business man is aware how useful such an organization, rightly managed, can be. One does not have to go far from home to see what boards of trade can accomplish. Youngstown, Akron, Canton, Steubenville and a dozen smaller cities and towns in eastern Ohio can point to industries, representing enormous investments and adding all the time to the prosperity of the whole community, which have been secured by reaching out for them.

What others have done, we can do. Our business men are as active and progressive as can be found anywhere. It only needs unity of effort, public spirit and work to accomplish lasting good. Let the board of trade make a campaign on these lines and it will be a winning one.

NEW AMERICAN PRODUCTS.

At the present rate of development of two important industries, America will soon be raising not only her own coffee, but the sugar to sweeten it. This nation is the greatest consumer of coffee in the world. Recent investigations by the government show that the coffee producing area of Greater America—in Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines—is vast and capable of immense development. The same districts are also producers of sugar and capable of almost indefinite expansion in that direction. With the growth of the beet sugar industry in the old states, there is ground for hope, that a new and profitable industry is open to American agriculturists.

The talk of a street-railway to Salem has started up again. If it were the railroad that had started, the news would be worth something. But there seems to be life in the project yet, and while there is life there is hope.

Fortunes have been wildly tossed about by the bulls of Wall street in the past few days and terribly rent by the claws of the bears. But the excitement is over and legitimate business has not suffered.

The board of trade can win golden opinions and something more substantial if it sets about its work in the right way.

Confidence has returned to Wall street, but confidence in Wall street has not reached the general public.

Hearty greetings to the new board of trade. May it lead a long and useful life.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Those Interested in Their Welfare
Hold a Convention Tuesday
Evening.

A convention of the Sabbath school workers of the city will be held at the First M. P. church next Tuesday evening. An interesting program has been arranged, and the music, under the leadership of the Methodist Protestant Sunday school orchestra, promises to be an important feature. The program opens at 8 o'clock with music and devotional exercises. Rev. J. W. Gorrell will speak on "The Sunday School; Why?" and Rev. George W. Orent on "The Duty of the Church Membership to the Sunday School."

A number of interesting topics suggested by the recent county convention will be discussed. The meeting will close at 9:30.

FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Rev. S. B. Salmon to Make the Address—Preparations for Observance.

The Memorial day committee, appointed some time ago by the Grand Army, has made considerable progress, although it was not ready to make a full report at the meeting last evening.

Rev. S. B. Salmon, of Smithfield, a member of General Garfield Camp, Sons of Veterans, has been secured to make the memorial address.

At the next meeting the various sub-committees will be appointed who will do the decorating in the outlying cemeteries and final arrangements made for the celebration of the day in a fitting manner.

for any further suggestions, and J. M. Aten took occasion to point out some serious defects in the road between this city and Wellsville, and thought some action should be taken for the betterment of that highway.

Secretary Travis had by this time prepared the paper for the signatures of those in attendance, and the same was passed around, each member who signed pledging himself to take active interest and pay the sum of $1. Thirty-seven names were recorded.

An effort was made to reach a decision on the time of holding the next meeting, but the matter was left to the board of directors, who will announce the date through the press. Adjournment was then in order.

The meeting was of a gratifying nature to the projectors and the selection of officers could not possibly have been better. There is every indication that the new board will be a business-like body, and that East Liverpool will reap good results therefrom.

BODY FOUND AT CHESTER THAT OF AN ALLEGHENY LAD.

He Was Drowned March 22 And Was
Harry Gaughan, 6 Years
of Age.

The News Review received a telephone message from Thomas B. Gaughan, at Allegheny, late this afternoon asking for a description of the body of the boy which was found in the river on the Southside yesterday morning. A description of the clothing worn and the medals which were around the lad's neck convinced Mr. Gaughan that the body was that of his son, Harry, aged 6 years, who fell into the river at the foot of Highland avenue March 22. Mr. Gaughan will arrive in East Liverpool this evening and the body will probably be taken back to Allegheny at once.

The corpse was buried yesterday by Undertaker Bowers, on the Gardner property, immediately after the inquest, the result of which was announced exclusively in last evening's News Review, and which led to the identification of the body today.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

William Clendenning Accused of Stealing Tools at a
Pottery.

A warrant is out for the arrest of William Clendenning, who is charged with the theft of a number of tools from the Taylor, Lee & Smith Pottery company. George Conn preferred the charge. It is said that Conn, who is employed at the pottery, was calling on Clendenning and upon some pretext managed to get into the cellar of the house where Clendenning lives. He claims to have discovered his stolen tools there. At noon today Clendenning had not yet been arrested, but a friend of his stated that he would voluntarily answer the charge at the squire's office this afternoon.

An effort is being made by a large number of people in this city who are interested in science to secure Mr. Woodland, of Chicago, for a lecture upon the results of his experiments with liquid air.

Mr. Woodland has been an instructor of science for several years, and has been wonderfully successful in his experiments. In case the efforts are successful the gentleman will be here on May 24. He is to deliver an address in Wheeling on the evening of the 23rd, and if the required number of signatures can be obtained he will be here the next day. So far 162 names have been secured, and those interested hope to make the number 200.

WANTS A DIVORCE.

LISBON MAN MAKES CHARGES
AGAINST HIS WIFE.

Will of the Late Charles F. Bauman
Probated—More Jurors
Drawn.

Lisbon, May 11.—(Special.)—William Little wants a divorce from Bella G. Little. They were married in Lisbon in 1890 and have three children. The husband charges infidelity.

The will of the late Charles F. Bauman, of East Liverpool, was admitted to probate today. Mrs. Bauman was in court and elected to accept the terms of the will and was appointed executor, no bond being required. J. J. Purinton, Smith Fowler and F. E. Grosshans were appointed appraisers. Charles W. Bauman was appointed guardian for Clarence H. Bauman, minor child of the deceased.

On application the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company was released from the bond of Elmer E. Black, of Salineville, as administrator of the estate of the late Elizabeth McGillivray, of Washington township.

J. B. Baker, administrator of the estate of Warner White, was given an order of public sale for lot 157 in Peter Ambler's addition to Salem, in order to pay debts of the estate.

Andrew McBane, administrator of the estate of the late Nancy McIntosh, was given an order of private sale for an interest in Madison township lands.

The panel of the petit jury has become incomplete and the following names were drawn this morning, the persons named to report for duty next Tuesday morning at 9: John Patterson, Madison township; W. E. Neff, Leetonia; B. F. Shook, Unity township; Cassius Sanor, Hanover township; George D. Flugan, Center township; George W. Saltsman, Washington township; James S. Windram, Wellsville; Frank Rollins, Salem; William McClaine, Salem; Henry Chambers, East Liverpool.

Court adjourned last evening until Monday morning.

STILL INCOMPLETE

IS THE TASK OF THE POTTERY
SCALE COMMITTEES.

A Multitude of Details Which It Requires Much Time to Decide.

The several committees who have in hand the adoption of prices to govern certain classes of pottery work have been holding nightly sessions throughout the week, but none of them have as yet completed their work.

The committee handling the new scale for the printing trade held another meeting last night, and it is now thought they will require but one more session to wind up the business. William Elder, a member of the committee, returned to his home in Akron this morning.

With those in charge of the kilndrawers' dispute the work is progressing as rapidly as could be expected, and the will finish next week.

When it is considered that the committee representing the slipmakers have already visited a majority of the slipmakers of the city and will continue the investigations until they have covered the whole ground, it is not surprising that their work is not yet completed. However, it is thought they will have completed the figuring by the latter part of next week.

TAKEN TO LISBON.

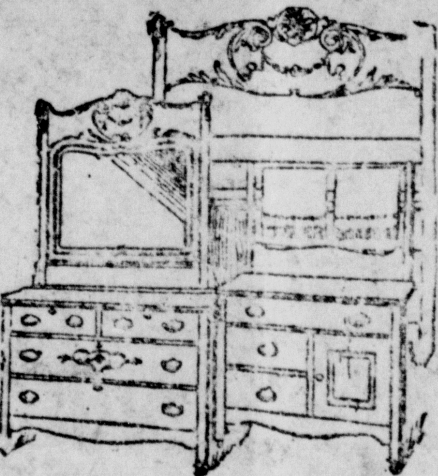

Mrs. Matursh Taken Before the Probate Judge—Nick Murray Taken Over Also.

Mrs. Lucile Matursh was taken to Lisbon this morning by Chief Thompson, where she will be tried by the probate judge on the charge of insanity. Attorney F. E. Grosshans is confident he can prove she is mentally unsound and irresponsible.

Officer Aufderheide took Nick Murray to Lisbon in company with the Italian woman. Murray was captured by Officer Stafford Friday night. He skipped out a few days ago on learning that Sheriff Noragon had a subpoena summoning him before the grand jury for selling liquor to an habitual drunkard.

BUSINESS IS SOUND

Legitimate Trade Has Not Been Affected by Wall Street Conditions.

IRON MILLS BEHIND ORDERS

Those at Pittsburg, so Stated, by Dun's Review — Reports From Nearly Every City Show Exceptional Volume of Transactions.

New York, May 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

A panic in Wall street does not mean that legitimate business has suddenly ceased to prosper, nor is the condition of mercantile trade and manufacture adversely affected by a violent change in prices of securities. Throughout the entire country fundamental conditions were never so sound as at the present time, reports from nearly every city this week showing an exceptional volume of transactions and payments promptly met.

Mills Behind With Orders.

Production is not overtaking demand at the finished steel mills, and all Pittsburg plants are two months behind orders, while 90 days is the limit at many. Although the expected advance in bar iron did not appear, the tone continues firm and orders are liberal. Billets remain at the top point for prompt delivery, but reasonable terms are available on forward contracts. In structural shapes and railway equipment there is all the business in sight that makers desire, and no effort is made to secure additional orders. Less urgency is recorded in pig iron markets, but buyers do not find terms more satisfactory, and, in fact, forge and foundry iron is rather more firmly held. Although the total number of furnaces in blast on May 1 was 40 smaller than on Feb. 1, 1900, the Iron Age estimates the weekly capacity at 301,125 tons, which exceeds all previous highwater marks. The activity of steel manufacturing is emphasized by the decrease of 34,279 tons in furnace stocks during April, despite the unparalleled production.

Less sensational events transpired in the cereal markets than in the preceding week, although quotations are slow to recede. Corn eased off a few cents, but is still about 10 cents a bushel, or nearly 25 per cent above the quotation at the corresponding date in two preceding years. Western operators continue to entertain strong views, and appear little daunted by the larger receipts attracted to interior cities by the unusually profitable prices offered. For the week arrivals aggregated 3,247,094 bushels, against 2,196,202 last year. Foreign purchasers have been driven out of the domestic markets by the high quotations, and Atlantic exports for the week have been 1,211,244 bushels, compared with 3,709,880 a year ago.

Cotton and Wool.

Recovery in the price of cotton was only temporary, and heavy liquidation of options was accompanied by a fall in spot middling uplands to the lowest figure recorded this year. Even at a loss of $9 a bale, compared with the quotation prevailing a year ago, there is little disposition to secure raw material, either by domestic or foreign spinners. As the end of the crop year approaches there is no sign of the famine predicted by many experts earlier in the season, and with most monotonous regularity port receipts continue two or three times as large as in the same week last year. With a large yield probable this year, and unsatisfactory conditions at the mills, there is no inducement to hold stocks. The situation is similar regarding wool and woolsens. Raw material is abundant, and a large clip probable, while manufacturers have only a light demand for goods.

Failures for the week numbered 187 in the United States, against 192 last year, and 26 in Canada, against 35 last year.

MARKET MORE CALM.

PROGRESS MADE IN RE-ESTABLISHING CONFIDENCE.

Natural Rebound in Prices—Gains in Some Stocks—Some Features of Market Friday.

New York May 11.—Rapid progress was made in re-establishing confidence in Wall street Friday, and there was a natural rebound in prices. That is to say, the fact of the rebound was very natural after the extent of the declines of Thursday, but the range of the recovery was surprising. Large progress was made toward wiping out the net losses which remained Thursday night after the recovery had already set in on the exchange. In a number of stocks which were not acutely affected Thursday, Friday's price rose above Wednesday's closing level, and in Missouri Pacific Thursday's net loss was recovered, with three points to spare, the extreme advance reaching 15 points. There was a good deal of trepidation still evident Friday morning, owing to the vague dread that there might be stock exchange houses which would be unable to meet their obligations after Thursday's drastic experience. The market was therefore unsettled and feverish, even after the strong opening, but when the official announcement was made that the clearing sheets of all the members of the Stock Exchange had gone through the Stock Exchange clearing house perfectly and that all their checks had been honored, a feeling of relief was manifested and steadily grew throughout the day. During the latter part of the day there was a resumption of what looked like a speculative movement for the rise led by Union Pacific. The buoyancy of this stock and the accompanying strength of the south-westerns was based upon rumors and assumptions of the benefits to accrue to Union Pacific from a change in control of Northern Pacific, which was still stoutly claimed by the Union Pacific party. Undoubtedly there were very many speculative losers of great resources in the collapse of Thursday who retained their nerve and determination and who sat about to recoup themselves by new speculation in the market. Other buyers were those who had gotten out early in Thursday's slump and who still saw a profit in getting back at the prices ruling Friday. The bargain hunters were also on hand in some force, and there were many cash transactions, both in bonds and stocks, representing their purchases. This outcome of affairs was pretty well assured when the news was learned Friday morning of the settlement effected with the shorts in Northern Pacific on the basis of $150 per share. This removed the overshadowing fear from the market and the quotations for Northern Pacific on the tape at 150 still further allayed the apprehension. The stock sold at 200 for cash afterwards but the progress of the settlement with the shorts at the offices of the conflicting interests in Northern Pacific prevented any further disturbance on that ground. The measures taken by the banks which placed heavy loans on the market Thursday and their decision not to call the loans Friday completed the tranquilizing influences.

Restraining Order by a Judge.

The issuance of a conditional restraining order by a member of the supreme court of the state, hinging on the reaching of an agreement between the warring Northern Pacific factions, was a novelty, but it served the purpose. It furnished the leaders of the wrangling elements an excuse they were very glad to have to get together and patch up a truce.

The market closed strong at the top with a feeling of relief over Saturday's holiday. The gain extended in Union Pacific to 22, St. Paul and Lackawanna 17½, Consolidated Gas 16, Burlington and Amalgamated Copper 12½, International Power 11½, Baltimore and Ohio 11, St. Louis Southwestern preferred 10½, Sugar, Delaware and Hudson and General Electric 10, and representatives of practically all the important groups from 5 to 10.

Bonds, which were weaker Thursday, showed some wide recoveries, but others were weak. Total sales, par value, $5,930,000.

U. S. new 4s declined ¼ per cent on the last call.

So far as actual control of the Northern Pacific is concerned, the impression was gaining ground last night that it will be the party with the most money that will acquire it. Many of the daily papers and some of the financial papers Friday expressed the belief that control of the Northern Pacific was still vested in the Morgan-Hill party. On the other hand, one of the leading daily papers of the city and some of the financial organs of the street still express the opinion that the Harriman party is in control. One thing seemed settled last night, and that was that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. did not yet admit defeat. Late in the day Mr. Otto H. Kuhn, of the firm, did not hesitate to say: "We believe we have control."

J. J. Hill, on the other hand, however, was quite as decisive in reiterating his previous statements that "the control has not changed."

As a matter of fact, it is said there seems to be no reason for doubting that both interests have control so far as stock in their possession, plus contracts for delivery, are concerned. But which interest will eventually be able to vote a control in the form of actual certificates remains to be seen, and will, it was believed last night, not be definitely known until the annual meeting in the fall.

RETURNED WITH A GUN.

Settlement Made by Brokers at Pittsburg Didn't Suit a Speculator.

Pittsburg, May 11.—In the office of A. B. Baxter & Co., at No. 225 Fourth avenue, William Bradburn, who has been in Pittsburg for several days, tried to collect what he said was due him from Baxter & Co. at the point of a double-barrel shotgun, which he brought into the office with him.

There was a wind rush for the door, which resulted in the breaking of glass and the overturning of furniture. Bradburn was seized by W. W. Vensel, one of the partners in the firm, before he had time to pull the trigger of the gun, and was held until the officers arrived and took him into custody.

The trouble arose over the settlement of some trades which Bradburn had made during the dizzy flight of the stock market Thursday. His trades had been made through George Newport, an East End broker, who had turned the business over to Baxter & Co. to handle. Bradburn's profits, at the close of the market Thursday, it is alleged by him, amounted to about $2,000, and he wanted to close the trades and get his money out. He called at the office shortly before noon Friday. According to the statement of the members of the firm, the matter was satisfactorily adjusted, and arrangements were made to pay over the money. Bradburn, it seems, did not agree with this view of the affair, and made his own arrangements to obtain the cash.

Bradburn alleged that Newport owed him $9,000 by reason of his speculation, and that a note for $1,300 was due him from Newport. Baxter & Co. had no dealings with Bradburn except through Newport, and he was not in the office at the time of Bradburn's first visit.

Bradburn, it is alleged, came into the office and leveled the shotgun at Vensel and Newport, who were standing at a desk busy figuring. Vensel sprang toward the man with the gun and wrested it from his grasp, and Newport dodged in order to get out of the way if the gun should go off. During the excitement Bradburn's money was forgotten and he was sent to Central station without it. A charge of disorderly conduct was lodged against him, and he was released on a forfeit.

Bradburn, around the "street," is reported to come from Chicago, but the information given the police was to the effect that he lives in the East End.

A RIOT WITH POLICE

Detroit Director's Obnoxious Order Led to an Exciting Street Battle.

INTERFERED WITH FREE SPEECH

Would Not Allow a Single Tax Advocate to Talk in the Street—Crowd Resented It—Some Citizens and Officers Were Injured.

Detroit, Mich., May 11.—Fully 10,000 men and boys ran riot in the main streets of this city for more than three hours and a continual running fight with police, both mounted and on foot, made an exciting night in the heart of the city last night. The net result so far as known is 12 citizens and five policemen injured. Mike Waldin and Louis Caplin had their heads crushed by being trampled on by horses ridden by the mounted police in a charge on the crowd. The officers injured are: James Tuomey, scalp cut by brick; Henry Scott, hit on head with cobbler stone; Thomas Murphy, cheek cut open with brick; George Moore, badly cut about head by brick and taken home in an ambulance; Barney Roonan, hit with a brick.

Police Director's Obnoxious Order.

The beginning of the riot was Thursday night, when Director of the Police Frank T. Andrews, who recently superseded the old police board through the passage of the ripper bill by the legislature, issued an order to the police to allow no one to stand about the wagon of one "Tom Bawden," a local single tax exhorter, who had incurred the ill will of the police director by the extraordinary nature of his remarks on so-called wealthy "tax dodgers."

When Bawden began his exhortation a crowd quickly gathered. Director Andrews supervised the work of the police in keeping the people moving. The crowd good-naturedly hooted the police and no violence was done.

Last night, however, the temper of the crowd changed when it was announced that Director Andrews had called on reserve officers to assist in keeping the campus martius clear. The single tax exhorter came with his wagon and found the campus jammed with people. The police refused to allow him to locate at any particular point and he drove from one street to another, the crowd following. The mob frequently blocked traffic and the police attempted to disperse them. It was not long before stones began to fly through the air and a general mixup followed, in which the riot police used their clubs and the mounted men charged. The officers fired their guns in the air and the mob returned the fusillade with sticks and cobblerstones. At one time, when the mob had gathered about the central police station, at Fort and Randolph streets, bricks were thrown through windows.

Trampled Upon by Horses.

In a charge made by the mounted police at this point Mike Waldin was knocked down and three horses trampled over him, cutting his head so badly that he was taken to the Emergency hospital. Officer George Moore was hit with a stone in this charge, and his cheek was laid open. He was taken to his home in an ambulance. The other officers were not seriously hurt.

At one stage of the riot a section of hose was secured by order of the police director and the stream turned on the crowd, but the hose was cut and the man who wielded the nozzle was driven into a saloon and pounded over the head with an iron cuspidor. Mayor Maybury was down town watching the crowd and at one time made a speech to the people from the postoffice steps, cautioning them to do no violence, but stated that he was not in sympathy with the order of Police Director Andrews denying free speech on the public streets.

STRIKE AT EXPOSITION.

Carpenters and Joiners Went Out. Reported Settlement.

Buffalo, May 11.—Last evening 650 carpenters and joiners employed at the exposition grounds went on strike. Unless the men's demands are granted by the exposition company the walking delegates threatened to call out every man employed at the exposition grounds today.

The men do not ask for higher wages. The trouble is over what the carpenters call "unfair" lumber, which, as interpreted by the union men, means material furnished by mills employing non-union men.

About 11:30 o'clock last night Director of Works Carlton made the following brief statement:

"All of the men who struck this afternoon will be back at work as usual tomorrow morning."

Mr. Carlton would not say whether he had held a conference with the men or not, but he was very emphatic in stating that the men would return to work and that there would be no delay.

Bishop Ready to Sell Cathedral.

Pittsburg, May 11.—Bishop Richard Phelan, of the Catholic diocese of Pittsburg, through his attorney, C. D. Gillespie, yesterday applied to common pleas court No. 1 for permission to sell St. Paul's cathedral and its connecting property to H. C. Frick for $1,300,000. Upon motion of Attorney Gillespie the court directed that a citation be issued to the members of the congregation to show cause why the prayer should not be granted.

YOUNG M'CORMICK DEAD.

Body of Boy Who Disappeared From Home Found Floating In a Creek.

New York, May 11.—The body of 12-year-old Willie McCormick, who disappeared from his home at Highbridge about six weeks ago, was found floating on the surface of Cromwell's creek, not far from the McCormick home. The father and sister of the boy identified the body by the clothing.

Police Captain Titus, in an interview last night, said:

"At the present time I am of the opinion the boy's death was the result of an accident. There were no marks of violence on the body, as probably would have been the case had the lad met with foul play. Then, too, if any one had thrown the body into the creek, he would have first weighted it so that it would have remained below the surface of the water. My theory is that the boy had been playing along the dock and fell into the water and there was no one there to save him or give an alarm. The torn condition of one of the pockets of the boy's coat would indicate that the garment had caught on something, snag or the like, under the water, holding the body down, thus causing it to escape observation. The masses of sea weeds and grasses in the creek would also tend to keep the body from coming to the surface."

The parents of the boy and Father Mullin, of the church of the Sacred Heart, of Highbridge, who has taken an active interest in the case, said last night they had abandoned the idea of foul play and that they believe the boy had been accidentally drowned.

RECOMMENDED FOR BISHOP.

Three Clergymen Suggested for the Head of the New Diocese.

Pittsburg, May 11.—Announcement is expected from Rome very shortly of the erection of the new diocese of Altoona of the Roman Catholic church. The names of three clergymen have been forwarded to Rome, and one of them is likely to be named bishop. The names have been submitted in the following order: First, on the nomination of Bishop Richard Phelan, of the Pittsburg diocese, the Very Rev. Francis L. Tobin, pastor of St. Mary's, Forty-sixth street, Pittsburg; second, on the nomination of Bishop John W. Shannon, of Harrisburg, the Very Rev. P. J. Garvey, rector of the Theological Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo, Overbrook; third, on the nomination of Bishop Michael John Hoban, of Scranton, the Right Rev. Mgr. Eugene A. Garvey, rector of St. John's, Pittston.

A LITTLE CHILD DROWNED.

Cloudburst Caused Overflows Near Wheeling.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 11.—A cloudburst east of Wheeling last night caused the overflowing of Peters, Chapels and Woods runs, tributaries of Wheeling creek. At Triadelphia the Baltimore and Ohio tracks were covered with water for several hours and trains were held up, including two passenger trains.

At Greggsville a little child, name unknown, is said to have been washed away and drowned. Between Greggsville and Leatherwood, a suburb, the wall of water came down about 10 feet in height, taking bridges, outhouses and logs. It was feared several lives were lost, but nothing definite could be learned last night.

In Wheeling the rainfall was about 1.1 inches in 40 minutes.

POLITICAL MATTERS.

Hon. Curtis McBride, of Richland, is one of the Democratic old guard of the state, but he is not in line with the faddists who have made shipwreck of the Democratic faith in Ohio and the nation. He was in Columbus the other day, having just returned from a pleasant sight-seeing tour of the south, and talked interestingly of Ohio politics. Speaking of the party in Ohio in a general way, he said: "When the Democrats of Ohio get back to the old landmarks of the fathers they will win once in awhile, but so long as they incorporate all the Populistic notions that ever emanated from the brains of the political mountebanks in their platforms, they will amount to nothing. We are likely to find them in Ohio this fall favoring initiative and referendum, municipal ownership, single tax, and all of the Populistic foolishness. The result can be discounted now, if that condition of affairs obtains. They took up with these Populistic theories and the consequence was the Democratic party has been swallowed alive by the Populists. They filled their platform with all sorts of rot about the laboring classes last fall, and when election day came the workingmen flocked to the polls and voted the Republican ticket, because they had plenty of work under the Republican administration and got good money for it. It makes me weary." The mention of Frank S. Monnett for attorney general made him smile.

The appearance of the name of Hon. John A. McDowell as one of the delegates to the Democratic state convention from Holmes county, recalls the fact that the ex-congressman is once more in the good graces of his party. Last summer, angered at his defeat for a third term, by "Oom Pop" Cassingham, he courted the Republican nomination for congress in his district. It was an overwhelmingly Democratic district, but McDowell was willing to take a chance at busting up the Cassingham ring by making the race on the Republican ticket. The friends of Cassingham got onto the scheme, and after considerable telegraphing and long-distance telephoning, McDowell was pulled off.—State Journal.

Within a few days Hon. William M. Jenkins, brother of John K. Jenkins, of Alliance, will be formally inaugurated as governor of Oklahoma territory, having been appointed to the position by President McKinley. When Governor-elect Jenkins returned to Oklahoma from the national capital he was given a grand ovation by the citizens of Guthrie, the capital of the territory, a large delegation having met him at Santa Fe station. He was given a rousing welcome, and in the exercises attending the reception great honor was done him as the retiring secretary and the governor-to-be.

The impression is growing among those on the inside of Democratic state politics that John R. McLean is backing John L. Zimmerman in the contest for governor. Pilgrimages to the office of Zimmerman in Springfield are now the order of the day, and the rush has begun in that direction, the most of the callers being the close political friends of McLean.

Dizziness

Is a very common consequence of indigestion and torpid liver. Sometimes there are spots before the eyes and hot flashes. At other times a sensation as of vertigo occurs, at once suffocating and blinding. It is a waste of time to attempt to cure this condition by ordinary means or medicines. The stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition must be restored to healthy activity, the blood must be purified, the liver cleansed and strengthened, before a cure can be hoped for. This is the work done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a medicine specially beneficial in diseases of the stomach, blood and liver. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, cleanses the clogged liver, and promotes the health of every organ of the body.

"My wife was greatly troubled with indigestion, torpid liver, dizziness, and also irregular periods," writes Mr. W. A. Preston, of Shuqualak, Noddy Co., Miss. "We tried many different remedies, but none of them gave perfect relief until we were induced by a lady to try your 'Golden Medical Discovery' Favorite Prescription, and 'Pleasant Pellets.' These medicines did more good than anything we ever tried for those complaints. We have used four bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one of 'Favorite Prescription,' and two vials of your 'Pellets.' These medicines have done the work we desired, and I do heartily recommend them to all similar sufferers."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the "Discovery."

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case it fails to cure.
